BELLEVILLE, TUESDAY, JAN. 2.

City and Vicinity.

For drinks were before the Magistrate today.

James FARNY of B. BATTY was in the city yesterday.

Mr. C. H. West, returned to the city from Winnipeg, last night.

A car of horses were sent from here yesterday to Rondont, N. Y.

Lure looks in various ways to the man who is the rejected candidate.

These arrests were recorded yesterday morning, and live this morning.

Roads and street carriages the sleigh and substituted wheel yesterday.

This idea that Christmas lasts until New Year is now exploded by effusion.

The sobriety of municipal warfare were to all intents and purposes, yesterday—avoided.

There was less excitement in this city yesterday over the elections than in been had for a number of years.

You can't afford the past month how the following: Innovations, 10; Doubting the knot, 2; Death, 15.

Tan hand harmonized yesterday to their treasury's benefit and to the enjoyment of those who heard their oratories.

COUNTERS and sled owners had a picnic yesterday. The former had a full benefit, while the latter had to take a little snow in their.

That preventative of diphtheria gorging the throat with alcohol, was not, from all outward appearances, generally prevalent yesterday.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" was presented here yesterday for the time to a large audience. The entertainment gave satisfaction.

The merchant who advertises in dull times knows his benefits that accrue therefrom—and they're too numerous to mention individually or separately.

The official publication of the result of the voting in the several wards in which contests took place yesterday, was made at noon to day, by the City Clerk.

A red squirrel was seen to run from the City Hall towards No. 1 engine house this morning. This, however, must not be considered as a sign of the times.

WATER NIGHT SERVICES were held in the Bridge Street, Congregational, Tabernacle,
St. Thomas and Christ Churches on Sunday evening and were largely attended.

ACCIDENTS, which details the street cars and buses are now in order. The man who has his mitts and gloves on and dislikes to pull them off, will always be on the ragged edge.

THREE accounts of the extraordinary services in the three churches south of Thorburn have been forwarded us. We regret our inability to publish more than one account, which appeared last week.

SIMON SANFORD was arrested on a warrant issued against him. He is charged with an offence which it is proved against him—will make him an absent one from this community for some time.

The glass-ball shooting match by the members of the Sportsman's Club, yesterday, was below the standard. John Pringle stood on the top rung of the ladder yesterday and performed some good work.

The members of the Club enjoyed themselves hugely. Capt. Jellett and Angus McFee chose sides, and after a contest of two hours the latter party were hailed the victors.

THE Commodores and officers of the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club have received an invitation to present at the annual ball of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, which is one of the chief social events of the year in Toronto.

TRENTON will show its love for trotting on the 9th and 10th, when it will present $375 for competition and will show a programme in which—as one of Hawley's programme would say—all sizes, sexes and dispositions, can compete.

JAMES CORRIN, one of the officials of the Sportsman's Club, and the President of the Trenton Boys at Frankford, died on Friday last and was buried at Stockdale on Sunday. A delegation of the order from this city, naming him sixteen, attended the funeral observances.

OUR ANGLO-SWISS machine washers, clocks, chairs, pianos, etc., are now in the marketable goods which we have.

MR. J. B. PATTERSON will be at the public auction every afternoon at 1.30 and evening at 7.30 this week. The sale is without reserve, and therefore those who desire to present prices at sacrifice, should avail themselves of this opportunity.

A LITTLE girl named Brieboom, living near the G. T. R. station, while riding on the back of the Merchants' Bank this forenoon, ran into the post at the top of the hill with such violence that had she struck the post squarely she would certainly have been killed. As it was, the side of her face was very much bruised and her leg badly hurt, but not dangerously.

A joint meeting of the proprietors of and residents upon the lands adjoining certain marshes in the county of Prince Edward and of the Sportsman's Club was held in the dining room of the Queen's Hotel on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

There was a fair attendance, and after some discussion it was resolved to petition to the Legislature for the formation of a game preserve. An adjourned meeting will be held on Saturday January 13th at the same hour and place. The project, we may add, bids fair to be entirely successful.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 3.

Meeting of Parliament.

We learn that the Dominion Parliament has been summoned to meet on Thursday, the 4th of February.

Gambetta.

The tragic ending of the life of France's greatest statesman and orator Leon Gambetta is such as enfolds more forcibly than ever the warning conveyed in the spiritual declaration "the way of the transgressor is hard." As, however, his sin has brought its own punishment, it is as well to throw the mantle of silence over his mortal remains, and, in doing so, we do the man whom his great public career was brought to an inglorious end and it has attained that fullness of glory which but a week or two ago it seemed certain of reaching. Leon Gambetta, we learn from a contemporary publication, was born at Cahors of a Gascons family, October 20, 1838. Adopting the legal profession, he became a member of the Paris bar in 1860, and soon acquired fame as a bold orator being called to the bar in political causes both in the capital and in the provinces while he obtained immense popularity among certain classes of the Parisians on account of his advanced Republican opinions. In March, 1869, on the occasion of the prosecution of the Emancipation newspaper at Toulouse, the young and eloquent orator met with a most enthusiastic reception in the south. At the general elections held that year M. Gambetta stood for the 1st and Marseilles as representative of the "Irreconciled Opposition" and was returned for both constituencies, but elected to take his seat for Marseilles. In January 1870, he made a violent attack on the Orléans Ministry, declaring that the day would come when the majority of the people would, without appealing to force, succeed in establishing a republic. On the fall of the empire and the consequent formation of the Government of National Defence, on the 4th September 1870, he was nominated Minister of the Interior and soon showed that he possessed administrative power and energy. His bold and forcible speeches, demanding took place between the Delegate Government at Tours and the National Defence Committee in Paris, regarding the contemplated election of Deputies. M. Gambetta was selected by his colleagues to proceed to the former city and explain the position of affairs in the capital. Accordingly he left Paris on Oct. 7, 1870, in a balloon named the "Armand Barbes," accompanied by a secretary and an aeronaut, passed safely over the Prussian lines, and reached Tours in the evening. Proceeding without loss of time to Tours, he then assumed the direction, and for some months was in the order of the day in those parts of France which were freed from the German invaders. He urged the people to continued resistance, raised the army of the Loire, and after the Delegate Government had been obliged to remove to Bordeaux, he issued a proclamation advocating war to the death and resistance even to complete exhaustion. It is scarcely necessary to add that his dream of driving out the Prussians was not realized, and that his volunteers were completely crushed by the well trained forces of the enemy. On February 6, 1871, MM. Arago, Garner, Pages, and Eugene Pelletan, members of the Paris Government, arrived at Bordeaux, bringing with them a decree signed by all the members of the Government, which annulled that of M. Gambetta, by which certain classes of electors were disqualified as candidates for the Assembly. In consequence of this censure M. Gambetta at once resigned his functions. Shortly afterward he proceeded to Spain, and resided there for some months in seclusion, but he returned to France and obtained a seat in the Assembly, where he was regarded as leader of the Radical wing of the Republican party. His political conduct was ever characterized by moderation and reserve, but nevertheless he constantly directed his efforts to one object—the de-entitualization of the Republic. In September, 1870, he organized a kind of democratic "group" in the Hotel de France, receiving a semi-official welcome from the municipal authorities. He delivered a famous speech at Grenoble which was regarded as a manifesto and programme of the "Red Party," amounting to a declaration of war against the Government of the National Assembly. Another famous speech of his was delivered at Aix, in January, 1876. At the close of the year 1877, M. Gambetta made a visit to Rome, and had a private conference with the Pope, and a man of the Italian kingdom. On September 11th, 1877, he was condemned by the Eleventh Correctional Tribunal of Paris for three months' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of 2,000 francs, for having said at Lille, at a private meeting of the President of the Republic must either submit or resign—"Il faudra ou soumettre ou démissionner." M. Gambetta was also present when his chief was to receive the sentence of the twelfth arrondissement of Paris. Judgment was pronounced on Oct. 12, two days before the election, M. Gambetta being condemned to three months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of 4,000 francs. Two days later he was elected a Deputy for the twentieth arrondissement. In the discussion in the chamber respecting the election of M. de Fontenay (Nov. 18, 1878), M. Gambetta called that statesman a liar, unprincipled, unscrupulous, and a scoundrel.

He was a perfectly harmless
Oxen, became Presidents of Deputies, and in 1881

form Le Grand Ministre, which collapsed on the Servir de Latte.

Editorial Brevities.

The manner in which the Langmuir testimonial is regarded by the members of the Dark League, will be shown when two or three of them will constitute, and were there no official pressure it is not likely that the number would be greater than one.

M. Blaikie's conclusion from his speech at West Durham is one of the most important character. The number of votes cast in the election was doubtless a subject of interest, but what would have been received with much more interest was Mr. Blake's opinion on the Boundary question, and the Rivers and Streams Bill. The "burning question" of fading the name of the town which Mr. Moreau hopes to secure another lease of power, Mr. Blake said nothing. Let the electors note the fact, the significance of which, in view of the near approach of the Provincial election, cannot be overestimated.

The growth of Winnipeg and its trade during the past year were something wonderful. The population increased to 25,000 souls and the assessment to $30,000,000, while $5,000,000 were expended on new buildings, $10,000,000 worth of property changed hands, and the electric light and street railway were introduced. The trade of the city aggregated $20,000,000 during the year, while the customs duties amounted to $187,327, and the imports from the other provinces were of the value of $12,000,000. The Winnipeg Sun, from which the above facts and figures are extracted, closes by saying—"These facts speak more eloquently than words! Just think of it! Yesterday, a Hudson Bay trading post; to-day a city with a volume of business aggregating $20,000,000! Of course, it must be borne in mind that Winnipeg is the distributing point of the whole Northwest. Our exports are less than half a million, comprising furs, large cattle, but most of our wealth is to export." Beyond a doubt, the customs collections would have been much larger but for the N.P.; but the N.P., by greatly reducing trade with the Yankees, caused the expenditure of several millions amongst the manufacturers and merchants of the older provinces that would have gone to the United States.

Our local contemporaries invited the electors to decide in favor of the Police Commission at the municipal elections. The result is that out of the twenty-one Aldermen elected, not more than four favor the Commissioners having power to control the expenditure for police purposes. A petition on this subject will be sent to the Legislature.

Resolution of Condolence.

ORANGE HALL, Frankford, Jan'y 1st. At a special meeting of P. B. Lodge No. 44 it was moved by Bro. E. C. Jempton seconded by Bro. William H. Tucker, and resolved—

"That we mourn the loss of our beloved Brother, Chas. A. Cottier, hereby tender our sympathy to his wife and family."

That while we mourn his loss as a dear friend and brother we sincerely hope that his soul is now held in high esteem by his brethren but also by the community in which he resided. We extend our sympathies to his widow, Brother, devout as a Christian, his memory will ever be fresh in the hearts of those who will ever be true to him.

Resolved, that a copy of this be forwarded to the INTELLIGENCER for publication.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 3

City and Vicinity.

New calendars are in great demand. The run on diaries has almost ceased.

WHEELED VEHICLES are once again in use.

The County Council will meet on the 23d.

Fours cans of corn were received to-day by Henry Corby.

The express from the west due at noon was an hour and a half late to-day.

Two prisoners and two tramps were cared for at the police headquarters last night.

Mr. Balis Rose, M. P. P., was in the city today. He will go to Toronto to-morrow to attend to his Parliamentary duties.

JAMES HUNTER attempted to paralyze a man named Waldo yesterday, and Sergeant McCruden arrested him to-day on a warrant.

The INTELLIGENCE has authority for stating that the person who induces this Uncle Tom's Country to visit this city will get no thanks.

M. F. R. Lingham, the Canadian cattle king, returned home last evening from a European trip. Everything must agree with him, as his looks denote such.

The Debating Society of the Mechanics' Institute will meet in the Board Room at 8 o'clock to-morrow night, for the purpose of electing officers. All interested are invited.

A NUMBER of residents of this city today availed themselves of the reduced rail rates, and went to Toronto. Some to attend the Grit Convention, and the majority the meetings.

The fisherman's harvest—judging from the returns—is anything but abundant.

There is a good deal, as far as foreign demand for fish, but the catch does not materialize sufficiently to fill the orders received.

THERE were two cases on the Police Court docket this morning. James Sarsfield for assaulting John Sarafield was fined $5 and costs, and Simon Sanford, for committing an indecent assault on George McFarlane was remanded until to-morrow.

LUMBERING operations continue very active and the prospects are that the cut will be unusually large. The weather has been exceedingly satisfactory for such work, and thus far everything has been favorable to all who are interested in this industry.

The Committee appointed by the County Council, at its last session, to consider the question concerning the By-laws of that body, had a meeting and a result of their deliberations, the County Clerk is at the work. It is about time that.

By law of the City were consolidated, for with their large number (over 500) and variety, there is a general want of acquaintance with them by our citizens.

The funeral of the late William Bowell took place yesterday afternoon to the cemetery, which was a very large one and included the entire English-speaking portion of that beautiful hamlet.

There is a man named Venner, who lives in Montreal. He has issued a weather bulletins for January and in it has made such a free use of the English language as to be liable for piracy. He makes a sort of catch-as-catch-can wrangle with meteorology and his predictions will probably prove as accurate as a Grand Trunk Railway time-table.

The annual election of officers of Independent Hose Co. No. 2 took place in the company's hall last evening and resulted as follows:

Captain.—L. F. Lalonde.

First Lieut.—R. Lynch.

Secretary.—J. C. Bremer.

Treasurer.—Thomas Guay, re-elected.

Standard-Bearer.—W. Kelahan.

After the election, the officers entertained the members of the company at an oyster supper. The pleasures usual at such times were indulged in and the party separated.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Toronto, Jan. 3.—Lake, strong southwesterly veering to northwesterly winds, cloudy to fair weather with light falls of snow, followed by decidedly cold weather. Thursday will probably be very cold.

DEDICATION.—The new M. E. Church, March Hill, will D. V. be opened on January 21st. Three services during the day by Rev. Dr. Badgley, T. W. McVety, M. A., and Dr. Caswell. The evening meeting the next night will be served in the school house near, from 4 to 7 p. m. A. Robertson, Esq., M. P., will preside at the platform meeting. A large number of speakers have promised to attend.

INSTRUCTION FOR THE DAY AND DINNER.—Mrs. Spalch, formerly housekeeper of the Institute, and lately Matron at the Agricultural College, Guelph, has been appointed Matron. Having been here for four or five years before going west, she is conversant with the language of the deaf and dumb, and her return will be an acquisition to the staff. Mrs. Martin, acting Matron at the Institute, goes to Guelph as Matron. Hosts of good wishes accompany her to her new position.

TAKE HENNESSY'S for useful Christmas presents, in nice silk, cashmere, or cloth stockings, kid gloves, mittens, caps and coats, silk and lace ties, wool cloths, scarfs and squares, piano and table covers, boy's and girl's underclothes, cotton, lace, edging, handkerchiefs, and various articles of silk, mantles, mitts and counterpanes, &c., and hundreds of other nice and useful articles for Christmas presents, cheap at HENNESSY'S.

Inland Revenue.

The Excise collection for the division of Belleville for December, 1882, was as follows:

Mail. $242 39

Tele. 1,587 90

Spirts. 6,145 48

Dec. 1881. $7,978 74

Increase. $7,274 11

The returns for the last half of 1882 were $48,875.78, and for the period of 1882 $8,005.66; an increase in favor of 1882 of $6,929.88.

Gas.

The Government Gas Inspector has furnished us with the following statement of the quantities of gas consumed in the city by the Gas Company for the last six months:

JULY.—Highest illuminating power equal to 16,42 candle power; lowest 15.69 average for month, 15.31.

Sulphurated hydrogen absent at each end.

AUGUST.—Highest illuminating power 16.45; lowest 15.43; average 15.66.

Sulphurated hydrogen present at each end. S. P. F.—No gas made, owing to the alterations being made in the Gas Company's works.

SEPTEMBER.—Highest illuminating power equal to 17,11 candle power; lowest 15.05. Average for month, 16.19. Sulphurated hydrogen present at every test.

OCTOBER.—Highest illuminating power 16.12; lowest 12.80; average 14.69. Sulphurated hydrogen present nine times, absent six times.

DECEMBER.—Highest illuminating power, 15.21; lowest, 13.00; average, 13.56.

Sulphurated hydrogen, present seven times, absent once.

The highest illuminating power for six months was equal to 17.25 candle, the lowest, 12.30; average, 15.31.

Christmas Gathering.

On Friday evening last a Christmas Tree was held in the old Methodist church, 3rd Concourse. The service being over, a large crowd of people gathered in the parlors to be entertained by the members of the Sabbath school and others in connection with the church. The church was nicely decorated, there being two trees. On those were suspended all sorts of presents, with an arch of evergreens between the trees, while lighted up, having a very pleasing effect. "Wreathes all" made of evergreen branches.

The programme was of considerable length, but well selected and very well rendered. The Christmas presents were next distributed, among which was the presentation of a beautiful silk dress, to their esteemed organist, Miss Finken, and a purse of money to the pastor, Rev. G. Wilkinson. The entertainment was a success financially as well as otherwise.

There were two cases on the Police Court docket this morning. James Sarsfield for assaulting John Sarafield was fined $5 and costs, and Simon Sanford, for committing an indecent assault on George McFarlane was remanded until to-morrow.

LUMBERING operations continue very active and the prospects are that the cut will be unusually large. The weather has been exceedingly satisfactory for such work, and thus far everything has been favorable to all who are interested in this industry.

MORNING DESPATCHES.
AMERICAN.

HOPES ROBBED.

Kington, N. Y., Jan. 3.—On the return of the family of A. R. Pease, from a long absence to their home in Kington, they found their house broken into, and their possessions taken. The Rev. Dr. Hall, who is a member of the congregation, was arrested and claims self defense.

THE Tribune says: Cleveland's first State paper is clear and straightforward, but not strong. It contains a few good recommendations, but is not particularly forcible or appropriate enough for their audience.

The Sun says: Cleveland's message is plain, simple, unaffected and straightforward, and has the signal merit of brevity. Its points are of a practical character, its ideas are few, but well and clearly presented.

The Times says: The Postmaster forbade the letter carriers to wear overcoats is denied.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Minneapolis, Jan. 3.—A man, William Loomis, while carelessly handling a revolver, discharged it. The ball took effect in the abdomen of one Wheeler, who will die. It is said that there was jealousy between the two men.

REPORT OF THE POSTMASTER.

Denver, Col., Jan. 3.—A divorce was granted yesterday to the wife of Lt. Gov. Tabor, by mutual agreement, on the ground of desertion. The agreement was made to accomplish a settlement and make things easy for a divorcee. Tabor decided to his wife property worth $10,000, and all the interest he had in a hotel paying $3,000. In view of the fact that Tabor is a prominent candidate for United States Senator, the affair created a good deal of interest throughout the State.

Drugs are dangerous, particularly in acute cases. Don't be afraid to consult your physician. Dr. King's Yellow Oil is a safe remedy.

Even physicians are afraid to speak of it.
"I am a physician, but I don't speak of it."
She went down stairs again and back into the room. Every soul was there, bated breath, and she was the only one who had not a bedroom. Fine dressed in all, and the curtains wavy, she commanded a wide western prospect of flower garden, growing trees, spreading fields, and the great
St. Lawrence meeting into the low western sky.

She was a physician, but she was a visitor in the parlor for you. There is a visitor for me?"

"Yes, a gentleman; young, and rather handsome. I asked him who I should wish to see you and what you think would not tell!"

"Never told me?"

Daily Intelligencer.

BELLEVILLE, THURSDAY, JAN. 4.

Silent Mr. Blake.

Says the London Advertiser: "Complaint is made in Tory organs that Mr. Blake did not touch upon local issues in his speech to the House of Commons yesterday, West Indians. Had he spoke of local topics the cry would at once have been raised that he was meddling in behalf of the Mowat Government." This is nonsense and the Advertiser knows it. Mr. Mowat, having cast aside the traditions of his party and ignored their dictum to the non-interference of Provincial Ministers, has given up the right to complain. Mr. Blake in June last, doubtless desired that Mr. Blake should now return the favor. Mr. Blake, however, now refuses to do so, despite the fact that the people wish to know his opinion on the two chief points in the Mowat programme, namely the Rivers and Streams Bill and the Boundary Award. What, under the circumstances, does Mr. Blake's silence mean but that his party are in the wrong in these matters, and that he, as an eminent lawyer, is afraid to risk his reputation by justifying them?

The Canadian Pacific Railway Rates.

The Grit papers never tire of asserting that the rates on the Canadian Pacific Railway are exorbitant, and although comparisons have been made that show the allegation to be untrue, the assertion is daily repeated. In order to set the matter at rest, the Winnipeg Times gives the following elaborate comparison of the winter rates on the Grand Trunk with those of the Canadian Pacific:

In divided parlance, general merchandise is divided into four ordinary classes. It is 2 miles from Montreal to St. John's, 100 miles, and the Grand Trunk winter rates are: 20c., 17, 13 and 10 cents. The C. P. R. carries the same goods a distance of 25 miles for 17, 14, 11 and 8 cents. It is 50 miles from Montreal to Rouse's Point. The Grand Trunk charges: 24, 20, 16 and 12 cents for the four classes. The C. P. R. rates for 50 miles are: 24, 19, 15 and 12 cents. It is 104 miles from Montreal to Arthabaska, and the rates are: 33, 32, 26 and 19 cents. The C. P. R. rates for 100 miles are: 34, 27, 22 and 17 cents. It is 148 miles from Montreal to River Black, and the Grand Trunk rates: 48, 42, 36 and 24 cents. The C. P. R. rates for 150 miles are: 45, 39, 29 and 23 cents. Take now the annual classes: flour, grain, lumber and live stock. It is 25 miles from Montreal to Lapigronniere. The Grand Trunk charges, for that distance, 14 cents for flour per barrel, 7 cents for grain per cental, $12 per car for lumber and $13 per car for live stock. The C. P. R. rates for 25 miles for the same are: 10 cents, 5 cents, $8 and $11. It is 40 miles from Montreal to Province Line and the Grand Trunk rates are: 18 cents, 9 cents, $14 and $16. The C. P. R. rates for 50 miles are: 16 cents, 8 cents, $12.50 and $16. It is 97 miles from Montreal to Warwick, and the Grand Trunk rates are: 30 cents, 15 cents, $23 and $28. The C. P. R. rates for 50 miles are: 26 cents, 13 cents, $22.50 and $27.50. It is 99 miles from Montreal to Iroquois, and the Grand Trunk rates for the four classes are: 34, 28, 23 and 17 cents; for flour 28 cents per barrel; for grain, 14 cents per cental; for lumber $23 per car; for live stock $28. The C. P. R. rates for 100 miles are: 34, 27, 22 and 17 cents; for flour, 26 cents; for grain, 13 cents; for lumber, $22.50; live stock, $27.50.

The comparison might be continued indefinitely. The C. P. R., albeit that the cost of operating is not less than 100 per cent, claims that the cost of operating the Grand Trunk is less than that of the Grand Trunk in winter, when it has no competitor. The Grand Trunk passes through an old-settled country, has to run freight; the C. P. R., penetrating a wilderness, has none. The Grand Trunk, which lies $20,000,000 of Canadian money, the interest on which the Canadian taxpayer must pay for all time, carries the wheat grown by the farmer in the Western States to the seaboard at Portland or Monroe, say, at Sir Philip's Point. The C. P. R., being built by Canadian money, also "discriminates," but in favor of the Canadian pioneer in the remotest West.

Editorial Brevities.

The desire to which Grid' editors resort in order to hold their readers are numberless, and we are sorry to say that bold, unblushing falsehood is to be numbered amongst them. Instinct follows the London Advertiser:

"The Supreme Court reversed the decision of the Court of Appeals in the Mercer case, and Queen's Bench, in the case of the Privy Council, reversed its decision, and upheld the original decision of the Court of Appeals, for the matter has not been before that body for decision."

The Ontario idea of fair play is shown by the publication of a short report of a speech delivered by Mr. N. Veronias, at Carlton, on Monday, in which a gross attack was made on Mr. Timothy Farnham, and the omission of Mr. Farnham's reply. No one would have known from the report that Mr. Farnham was present, but he was completely refuted the charges. Perhaps our contemporary is not responsible for this gross untruth, as it is quite probable that Mr. Veronias furnished the report.

Another omission of Mr. Blake was that of the couplets and verses of poetry which he is fond of quoting. He no longer quotes them, but merciful Providence fashioned them well.

On purpose to let them their principles prevail.

—Says the London Advertiser:

"Complaint is made in Tory organs that Mr. Blake did not touch upon local issues in his speech to the House of Commons yesterday, West Indians. Had he spoke of local topics the cry would at once have been raised that he was meddling in behalf of the Mowat Government." This is nonsense and the Advertiser knows it. Mr. Mowat, having cast aside the traditions of his party and ignored their dictum to the non-interference of Provincial Ministers, has given up the right to complain. Mr. Blake in June last, doubtless desired that Mr. Blake should now return the favor. Mr. Blake, however, now refuses to do so, despite the fact that the people wish to know his opinion on the two chief points in the Mowat programme, namely the Rivers and Streams Bill and the Boundary Award. What, under the circumstances, does Mr. Blake's silence mean but that his party are in the wrong in these matters, and that he, as an eminent lawyer, is afraid to risk his reputation by justifying them?

Says the London Advertiser:

The Monthly Journal of Commerce, edited by Sir Francis Hincks, controverts these journals which seek to make it appear that the McLennan Caldwell case was an affirmation of the illegality of the Slave Trade. The Advertiser says that the Slave Trade takes precisely the same ground as the Advertiser, viz., that it is illegal, but mercifully affirms what it conceives to have been the law before the passage of the Slave Trade Act. An English court of law, however, would have been no better off than the Advertiser.

Considering that the Bill declares that such and such was, and is, the law, it will be seen that the decision of the Supreme Court is a direct and unmistakable condemnation of the Bill.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Four Persons Murdered by a Hired Man.

Others Dangerously Wounded. TERRIBLE STRUGGLE WITH THE MURDERER.

Horrid mystery Jan'y 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Cooke of Littleton, N. H., brutally murdered, and their sons George and Willie and daughter Emma dangerously wounded by their male servant, between five and six o'clock this morning. The murderer first attacked Mr. Cooke at the barn with an axe, killing him there, then Cooke in the shed adjoining the house. Entering the house, he attacked George, who was in bed, inflicting probably fatal injuries. Willie, Emma, and Maggie came to the rescue, the two first were dangerously wounded. The latter, however, succeeded in wrenching the axe from his hand and kept him at bay, until the arrival of a neighbor, he fled and has not yet been arrested.

FRENCH GIRLS.

The noise alarming his sisters, Maggie and Fannie, brought them to his assistance. In the struggle which ensued Maggie secured the axe, and the murderer then seized a lamp and struck Fannie with it, wounding her severely on the head. He then fled down the back stairs; the two girls going by the front stairs, met him in the dining room, armed with a poker, when he struck at them with it. They defended themselves, and closed a door on him. Maggie then ran to the kitchen, where she hailed a passer-by, who summoned the police, upon hearing which the murderer fled, and was soon across the river going in the direction of the St. Philip station of the Canada Pacific Railway. Nothing further up to this hour been heard of him.

A GHOSTLY SPECTACLE.

The house presents a more ghastly spectacle, the bodies of the four victims, Mr. Ruggles, Mr. Cooke, Mrs. Cooke, Emma and George being laid out in it. The floors, walls, and doors are bespattered with blood. Willie's wounds are not serious as to afford but slight hopes of his recovery. The murderer, Frederick Mann, a young Englishman lately returned from Canada, had been there months in the winter, and is about the same height as the deceased, is about 30 years of age, six inches high, rather stiff and pale complexion. He left without a coat, wearing plain grey pants and leather moccasins. Mr. Cooke, the murdered man, was a very respectable farmer residing near Little Rides. Great sympathy is felt for the family.

THE RICH.

When Hops are $1.25 per lb. as now, and the annual medicine on earth, Hop Bitters, contain the same quantity of Hops and are sold at $1.25 per lb., the price of hops is now twenty times higher than then. Hops, get rich Hop Bitters, to be had at your druggist, to obtain the truest and best.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. This year, especially with those colds, it is often hard to secure Company, Bed, and a comfortable room to lie in, and many troublous things are liable to end in Consipic.

The best and most pleasant remedy for these complaints is Dr. Farnham's Kidney Cure, to be obtained at any Druggist.

Hilliard's True Friend is taken internally. It acts directly upon the blood and the nervous system. Price 75¢. For sale by Jas. Clarke & Co., Belleville, Ont.

City and Vicinity.

Two arrests were made last night. The Curling Club has 24 members.

SATURDAY is Epiphany and Little Christmas.

The usual council committees will meet to-night.

The thermometer last night showed 8° above zero.

Wool consumers regret the absence of good sleighing.

The skating has improved and the ice is "making" perceptibly.

EVENING parties are again raving, and the good looking young fellow is in demand.

The meeting of the Mechanical Institute Debating Club takes place to-morrow evening.

It is almost time that another surviving grand of Napoleon at St. Helena put in an appearance. The monotony of his absence is unexplainable.

It is neither strange nor remarkable. The T. R. was again to-day running on an unrelieved time table, though the usual rates were charged.

The position of assistant teacher in the Newburg High School has been tendered to Miss Curlett, of this city, who will receive a salary of $450.

Unless a blizzard or two will come to the front, the coal dealers of this section of the country will abandon their contemplated project of starting a summer resort out of their business profits.

Mr. W. F. Jones of the firm of Nathan Jones & Son, who came to Europe to-day via New York to purchase goods for the firm, was pleased to say that the dry goods trade of the city has increased so rapidly of late that it pays our merchants to purchase a near first hands as possible.

The investigation of the charges against Thomas Fay and Michael O'Malley, who were tried in interim Sessions before Judge Lazier, resulted in their acquittal. The offence charged against them was the larceny of money from Wallbridge and May.

FOURTHS seems inclined to follow John McCarty and evidently wants him to go into the dairy business. He says he has a black cow—but the owner must prove property, pay charges and fulfil such other necessary and requires legal requirements can enable him to have her away.

There was a brief demand for accommodation at the police station last night and though the demands on which the weary had to rest and seek rest Nature's sweet restorer, were not of the salted guage, yet, rest did not differ with the tide available to the members of the shelter the city provides without money and without price. It is the universal remark of all patrons of the cells: That the bed of the transgressor is very hard.

Two arrests were made at noon today. Sergeant McDonald took charge of George Lyon who captured four chickens owned by Mr. McNaullin, and Sergeant Down recovered the chickens for the lazenay from Mr. Gethers of half a hog. The latter evidently known to be it to go "the whole hog or none."

A WAYLAYER wanders rich in the possession of a 25c. piece and good spirit (none) alledged, secured lodging at the station last evening. During the dull sombre shades of the evening he and his companions went through him and extorted him of his currency. Now can this question be asked, where were the police?"

SEVERAL horses owned in this city will contest for the wealth and honor the Trenton race meeting present. The fleetest of these flyers now won't close to 28, but as a slow watch will govern the time at the start that state of things would not rash to assume that standard of excellence will not approach that standard of excellence the reported time they have made sure.

WM. SOA, an employee of Frost's furniture factory, while at work last evening with a shaper, suffered the laceration of the middle finger of the left hand, injured the others and split the thumb. It was found necessary to amputate the central digit and Dr. Burdett performed the operation. It may be that further surgical attention will require, but the doctor says that the remaining fingers and time will be required to determine the probabilities.

THESE are some in this world who have greater thrust upon them and among the number is the cattle czar, Mr. F. R. Lingan, who wears his honors proudly. For the following information the Driver's Journal of Chicago, is responsible: "F. R. Lingan has elected Mayor of Belleville, Ontario, Canada, at the last election. At this time it would be useless for us to make any comments, for the reason that his fellow citizens know better than we could write about him, still we must add that the citizens of Belleville have been very fortunate in finding such an able and discreet director for their Municipal choir. He is a capable, intelligent, and careful, always charitable to the deserving. And possessing all the qualities why not make a good Mayor!"

YESTERDAY afternoon a reporter of THE INTELLIGENCER chanced to make a call at No. 2, fire shed and while there was shown an "experience" concerning the existence of which he had no idea. While in conversation with Mr. James McCurdy, the capable engineer of that steamer, a bell was rung and the horses which draw the engine ran into their places with a celerity and precision, not even surpassed by those of regularly paid fire departments. The "bell introduction" is a device of Mr. McCurdy's and the instant the horses have been given to him he makes perfect it as their opportunities have permitted.

WEATHER PROPHETIES.—Toronto, Jan. 4.—Lakes and upper St. Lawrence, north westerly to northern lakes, and decidedly colder weather. The temperature will fall below zero in most places.

RENTAL SALE.—Foster & Reid, commissioners and annual rental agents for the diary of David Green, Frank, Wilson, Taber, and Evelyn, Lining Hand-Weavers, and Tappet Weavers, Lining Handshears. Special attention is called to this sale, as owing to the large fall trade they have done, they have on hand an unusually large collection of remnants. Call and see bargains. Foster & Reid.

WE ARE FOR THE MILLION.—James Hartson, who worked on a book and stationery shop in Belleville for about thirty years, has just introduced to us a neat, plain and durable bureau for a lamp, called the "Victoria Burner," which gives a clear, beautiful gas light of six jets. The fluid used is called exsolier fuel. It does away with the use of chimneys altogether, and is said to be cheaper than light produced by coal oil.

POLICE COURT.—In this tribunal today Mrs. Harris, charged with indecent exposure, was dismissed; Thomas Carnay averred that the charge against him of being drunk was contrary to truth and the case will be referred to investigation; James Hunt absolved Henry Ward, and paid $500 and costs for the privilege, and added, "I presented two suits for his freedom, an unusual offence was liberated as the lad on whom it was committed did not thoroughly comprehend the responsibility that attaches to the making of oath."

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY, JAN. 5.

A Significant Incident.

The Grits officially relate the following in connection with the proceedings at the Grit Convention:

A significant incident occurred in connection with the selection of secessaries for the meeting. The meeting was that of Major George Brown, son of the late Senator Brown. The room was filled with the members of the party, the hall resounded with shouts of "Brown, Brown!" "We want to see him," &c. In the course of the discussion, a motion was made to adjourn the meeting in order to proceed with the regular order of business—nothing would suffice but that the speaker should be allowed to speak, who, on coming to the front of the platform, was the recipient of a perfect ovation, several times shouting "Hail to him!" and shaking hands with him. It was a pleasing and touching tribute to the memory of the departed leader.

We must admit that the occurrence was a significant incident—very significant—for the Grits. The man within the party whom Mr. Brown opposed, because he was loyal to British connection, have trampled and despised his trusted lieutenants from the moment of his election. He has no friends in journalism and none left to assume his position as conductor of the Grits, has been depressed in favor of one who derives his inspiration from Mr. Blake and at one time unsuccessfully tried to rival him in the journalistic world in Toronto; but it is evident that there is still a powerful element within the party which adheres to the late Mr. Brown's ideas and reveres the departed statesman. The ovation to the son of the great father does not bode well for the Grits, under its present management, and the Blake faction.

Asylums for Insane and Idiots.

We have received copies of the annual report of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities, on the asylums for the insane and idiots, for the year ending Sept. 30, 1832. From these reports it is learned that at the close of the official year, ending September 30, 1831, the number of persons of unsound mind in the five asylums of the Province was 2,650. During the year there were admitted to the institutions 625 persons, making a total under treatment during the year of 3,175. The number who died or were discharged during the year was 435, leaving the number on Sept. 30, 1832, 2,742. To this number must be added 33 insane convicts confined in the lunatic wards of the Kingston Penitentiary, and persons certified to be insane, confined in the wards of the province awaiting admission to the asylums, making the number under actual confinement 2,822. In addition there were on site, in the various asylums on Sept. 30, 1832, applications for the admission of 29 lunatics and 55 idiots; and 27 and the lunatics under public accommodation were absent on probational leave, making the total number of persons of unsound mind, within the official cognizance of the department, 2,933. Deducting from the figures the number of idiots and feeble minded persons in the Asylum for Idiots, Orillia, 234, and the number of idiots for whose admissions applications are on file in the various Asylums, 55, the actual number of insane persons in the Province, so far as officially known, is 2,644.

The report shows that at the close of the official year 1831 there were 2,650 patients in residence in the Provincial Asylums, the number for the year 1832 was 2,742—an increase of 92 for the year. The increase in numbers is confined entirely to the insane, the figures for the Asylum for Idiots being precisely the same for both years. The number of lunatics under accommodation in 1831 was 2,805; in 1832 the number was 2,909—an increase of about 3.7 per cent. for the year. There were 75 patients in the idiotic wards of the Hamilton Asylum in 1831, and none in 1832. This is explained by the fact that on the 21st of September—a few days previous to the close of the fiscal year—all the Idiots accommodated in these wards were removed to the Asylum for Idiots at Orillia, thus leaving the whole of the Hamilton Asylum free for the exclusive accommodation of the insane.

Of those admitted to the asylums during the year, including those transferred, 290 were married and 348 unmarried—a total of 638. 387 of them were of Canadian birth. However, as before stated, the number of actual additions was 525—the balance being transfers from one asylum to another.

Do not be Deceived.

It acts directly upon the blood and the nervous system.

Of the causes of insanity of the patients during the year 122 were from mental and 177 from physical causes. The suffers from hereditary diseases were 137, and 113 from congenital, while 295 cases were from causes unknown.

By a comparison of the accommodations now with those at the time of Confederation, and the number of inmates, it will be noticed that the percentage of insanity has decreased in the Province. In 1831 there was a very considerable decline in the number of admissions; a decided increase in the number of discharges. In 1832 the number of admissions declined. The number of discharges and did rise to 80 per cent. of the admissions, with a corresponding decrease in the annual number.

For the maintenance of the Asylums in 1831 the amount spent was $322,77,02, and in 1832, $368,683.67; showing an increase of $45,711.45 this year over the previous one. The lowest annual cost per patient is $125.56 at Hamilton, and the highest $272.79. Of the total amount paid for the asylums at Hamilton, at $241.41, and the highest at London, $279. Of the total amount paid for the asylums, $100,715.15 was for salaries and wages. The revenue from paying patients shows a steady increase, the amount derived from that source during last year being $43,937.64, as compared with $41,954 the preceding year—an increase of $2,000.

Of the admissions to the asylums during the year 11 persons came from the county of Hastings, 9 coming from the goals of Hastings, 1 from the county of Simcoe, and 2 from private families medical certificates. Of these 9 are in the Toronto Asylum, 5 in Kingston, 2 in Hamilton and 2 in Orillia.

The revenue of the Dominion for the six months ending with December, according to an unverified statement, was $18,065,507.85 an increase of $2,188,637.15 over the corresponding period of 1831. Of the total amount the Consuls contributed $1,888,634.84; Exchequer $15,847.61; and Miscellaneous $2,721,715.35.

Says the Mail:—"Misrepresentations have been made by interested parties regarding the Monitor. One of the contractors has sold out. This statement is devoid of truth. A second statement is that the contractors have sold out. This statement is devoid of truth. A third statement is that the contractors have come up on a quicksand, and are unable to proceed further. This statement is devoid of truth. Three hundred men are employed on the canal, and in a short time two hundred more will be engaged. The work is being pushed forward rapidly, and it is expected that the canal will be completed in two years instead of three." A letter from a gentleman who knows whereof he writes appears in another column. It completely dispels the falsehoods circulated in this regard.

The Toronto News informs us that:—"Some interesting information respecting the work on the eastern section of the Canadian Railways may be obtained from Superintendent Lyndsay. He says it will take two years to build the line between Niagara and Collingwood. The work has to be done is something fabulous. Out of the 180 miles eight have to be tunneled, and the work is being steadily dry for construction. The canal will be completed in two years instead of three." The News further reports that:—"Some interesting information respecting the work on the eastern section of the Canadian Railways may be obtained from Superintendent Lyndsay. 4. The soil of the marsh is first a layer of alluvial deposit, then a layer of sand similar to lake shore sand, and then blue clay. It will be seen by this that the soil, instead of being quicksand, is very favorable for canal construction.

Instead of difficulties having been discovered, the entire route is proving most favorable, and the work is progressing in a most satisfactory manner, and the contractors are showing themselves most capable and energetic in their efforts.

By giving the above facts publicly in your valuable paper, you will confer a favor upon an interested public.

FROM MILTON.

Execution of O'Rourke the Murderer.

The Prisoner Made Death Quietly.

MILTON, Jan. 5.—O'Rourke, condemned to die for the murder of Patrick Maher, aged 40, and his daughter Bridget, aged 30, was executed this morning.

Father O'Reilly was with him most of the night. The prisoner slept well and a light sleep. At 8 o'clock the hangman pinched him in the arm, and held him by his sides tightly and his hands together. The procession was then formed, the Sheriff leading, the condemned following, and the priest and doctor bringing up the rear.

O'Rourke walked firmly up the dozen steps leading to the scaffold. The sheriff then said, "Michael O'Rourke, if you have anything to say, say it now." He answered: "I don't have anything to say." The sheriff then knelt on the steps and the hangman pinched him in the arm, and held him by his sides tightly and his hands together.

The procession was then formed, the Sheriff leading, the condemned following, and the priest and doctor bringing up the rear.

The prisoner said to the sheriff, "On the other day I had a good life and if he had not saved me he did not know who would be."

The crime for which O'Rourke was executed was an atrocious one. He left the employ of a farmer named Pat Maher in the Township of Nelson, about 13 miles from Hamilton, on the morning of Friday, January 19th, 1832, and went to the house of his employer, and entering the isolated log house, killed Maher's aged and helpless father, and the sister of the latter, aged about 30 years, the fatal instrument in both cases being an axe.

No motive could be assigned for the terrible deed, except possibly that given by himself, "I will kill him." He confessed his crime and after a full trial was found guilty by a jury in March, last, and sentenced by Justice Cameron to be hanged on June 9th.

Upon application of the Attorney General issued a full respite, prison till to day, in order that points raised by his counsel might be argued in due time.

He was granted a reprieve, but unsuccessfully, however, O'Rourke had a wife and child, who were in Liverpool.

The prisoner said to the sheriff, "On the other day I had a good life and if he had not saved me he did not know who would be."

Upon application of the Attorney General issued a full respite, prison till to day, in order that points raised by his counsel might be argued in due time.

He was granted a reprieve, but unsuccessfully, however, O'Rourke had a wife and child, who were in Liverpool.

The prisoner said to the sheriff, "On the other day I had a good life and if he had not saved me he did not know who would be."

The crime for which O'Rourke was executed was an atrocious one. He left the employ of a farmer named Pat Maher in the Township of Nelson, about 13 miles from Hamilton, on the morning of Friday, January 19th, 1832, and went to the house of his employer, and entering the isolated log house, killed Maher's aged and helpless father, and the sister of the latter, aged about 30 years, the fatal instrument in both cases being an axe.

No motive could be assigned for the terrible deed, except possibly that given by himself, "I will kill him." He confessed his crime and after a full trial was found guilty by a jury in March, last, and sentenced by Justice Cameron to be hanged on June 9th.

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY, JAN. 6.

City and Vicinity.

One arrest was made last night. The mercury went down 5° below zero last night.

The morning express from the east was two hours late and that from the west went one better.

A large number of those who took advantage of the cheap rates to Toronto, returned home last night.

Last night's contribution of the beautiful though, doubtless, intended for equal distribution, went into drifts.

The largest pike that has been caught in these waters was on exhibition in Taylor's fish market yesterday. It weighed 16 lbs.

Some returning railroad laborers from the northern part of the country, made masters quite easily at the G. T. R. depot last evening, and two of them acted so badly that they were put in temporary custody.

The full benefit of last night's storm was experienced by one who crossed the bay from the Prince Edward side at two o'clock this morning. He got lost for a time but eventually switched on to Zwick's Island, and having properly got an idea of its geographical position, was enabled to accomplish the remainder of the journey.

On Saturday, the congregation of the Wesley Church, front of the hotel, held a New Year's tree festival. Rev. R. C. Williamson filled the office of Chairman and Master of Ceremonies. Professors Greene and Brown of the Institute for the Deaf &amp; Dumb, and Mr. Walter Herrington contributed to the programme. The proceedings were $62.35.

A large sum came to the city to-day and for a time was diligently engaged in trying to dispose of a piece of Madoc rock. His treasure, which was carefully rolled in a piece of white paper, was confined to the pocket of a person who presented it to the nose of a prominent barrister. The longer he had sold mine experience to obtain an average millionaire and therefore didn't invest.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Toronto, Jan. 5.—Lakes, easterly to northerly winds, slightly higher temperature.

The continuation of the R. C. Bazaar resulted in the banner day for the sale of Mr. Charles Palmer's art. A white crochet spread went into the possession of Miss Nelly O'Brien. "The transit of Venus" is further reserved and the disappearance will be noticed hereafter. The ladies do not relish their silence, thanks to the always popular City Clerk, Robertson, for his kindness in proceeding over the drawing, and otherwise rendering invaluable assistance.

There is one man in this world who ought to be thankful for favors. His name is George McCaul. He was taken into the police station last night, drunk, and had $4.15 in his pocket. This morning he went forth from the police station, a man and his treasure only influenced by the extent of a dollar. Mr. George and Captain, whose case was noticed yesterday, were sent up for trial, and James Carnegie, on remand for being drunk, got $10 or 30 days and his case was settled.

TO THE NEW YORK DAILY INTELLIGENCER, of Dec. 28th—Sir: I am M. Edward H. Thompson, who for the past eleven years has faithfully provided for the job printing department of the Advertiser. My establishment will become a member of the firm with the New Year." Mr. Thompson may be stated, was for several years a resident of Belleville, served his apprenticeship in the INTELLIGENCER office, and his mother and relatives reside in this city, which he has many friends. We congratulate Mr. Thompson on his advancement, which is the result of ability and long and faithful service.

Chief Justice Wallbridge is still on the duty.

The horse shoe is once more in his glory.

The owner of the swallow tailed coat is a demand.

SOMETIMES 62 trains pass the G.T.R. daily.

Two tramps autographed at the police station last night.

This G. T. R. trains to-day were just as usual: as usual.

This fast horse owned hereabouts, are now speeded on the ice.

No. 1 steamer is arriving needed repair at Brown's foundry.

The usual service customary to "Little Christies" took place to-day.

A meeting of the Board of the School Board takes place on Tuesday evening.

VENICE'S weather reports are as accurate as the average O. T. R. time-table.

Last night was the coldest of the winter. The temperature was 8° below zero.

The sleighing is very poor and the coming light snow falls will materially improve it.

Who is to be the warden for 1883? That will trouble more than one anxious philospher.

Cool BURGESS and Venner should go into partnership. One is as reliable as the other.

The Council meets on Monday evening.

The new Council will meet for organization on the 15th.

The average daily grain receipts and shipments of Downey & Preston comprise eight digits.

The attendance at the market to-day was not light, proportionately, as that of the average committee meeting.

In the rear portions of the county the sleighing is capital; in this locality it doesn't fill the requirements.

The young bachelors of a city entertained their married friends in a satirical exercise on Thursday evening.

SEVENTEEN cars of corn were received this week by Mr. Henry Corby. He will supply for the season's output is all on hand.

The Police Magistrate had a this morning. The dry slate that follows Christmas was presented to him for the first time this year.

The army of New Year's Day good resolutions has begun to wave, as many who were in the front rank—in announcement have deserted to the enemy.

"There's nothing new," said John Moore, "in reply to the usual Cruden to-day, 'It's cold,' he added but interrogration.

"The thermometer never goes up, the price of thermometers never goes up,

Several residents of the northern part of the city experienced the benefit of the earthquake on New Year's Day and report that a similar disturbance has been placed there.

The many friends of Mr. Frank Truslow were quick to learn that he has improved considerably, and that the third ring of the ladder of health has been reached by him.

WITHOUT just cause and provocation the alarm bell ordered out the fire department this morning. A burning chimney in the Angle had conflagrated sufficiently to create excitement.

The City Mission Day School commences on Monday next at 1:30. Miss Ellis Wright is in charge, and will take charge of that department of the City Mission work. We wish her great prosperity.

MESSES. REYNOLDS have secured the services of English Prof. Richardson, for two or three weeks, with elegant scenes by electric light, "around the world in 80 minutes," and "London," for January 15 and 16th.

"It will cost $100,000, its capacity will be 80,000 people, and it will not be completed before the 15th of February."

The Alma Mills now run night and day and will continue doing so while the water is high. The output of these mills at the present time is 500 barrels weekly over and above local demand, and the quality of the product is excellent.

Rav. Mr. Kilgore made a valuable discovery over the other day. He investigated a Christian tree and found therein an Astrachan coat valued at $50. His parishioners showed the esteem in which they held him by placing the garment where he could readily find it.

Mr. RALPH, from Ottawa, who is to speak again to-morrow evening at Bethel Hall, studied at H. Grattan Guiness (Harley College) London, Eng., and afterwards labored for two years as a missionary among the Girdges, Cape de Verde Isles, Africa, and has been preaching in this country since his return last summer. All are well. See advertisement.

TRANSMISSIONS. The work rooms of Mr. John Coughlin a master, who is one of the handsomest that this province possesses. It is red granite of massive proportions, composed of seven parts, and the base, die, cap, dome, plinth and cross will weigh two and one half tons. On it, in raised letters, is inscribed: "Sacred to the memory of Patrick Turley, who died Dec. 29, 1881." This Mr. Coughlin considers the heaviest job that has been done in this section of the country. In the same establishment is a fine and attractive line of monumental architecture, embracing several varieties of granite and marble, finished in excellent taste. The work rooms which are located at the western approach of the lower bridge are well worthy of a visit.

KITTY'S PRAYER.

The mistress is dying—the doctor has said—
Oh, who'd be a doctor, to bring us our death!
To die by our side, to hold us close?—
A doctor, the pulses, an' countin' the breaths;
To drive to our doors in a vehicle stately,
To set us free from the world's pain.

An' you contumely have us to do?

"The mistress is dyin'—it is a pity—
She's had no peace, nor smile, nor pretty;
Is there no kind soul could go in there?"

She tried to say it kind, we think it am honor;

To fare her kind self, I set my eyes on her;

An' then I said, "I will do what she's dead;

BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, JAN. 8.

The Blind Asylum

The eleventh annual report upon the Institute for the Blind at Bradford has been printed and laid before the Provincial Legislature.

It appears that on September 30th, 1881, there were 143 pupils in attendance at the institution—81 males and 62 females ; and on the corresponding date of the present year the number was 134, of which 72 were males and 62 females. The average attendance at the session ending in June last was 138, of whom 85 were males and 64 females. The attendance for the past year has been considerably lower than for the preceding year. The more rigid exclusion of pupils over 21 years of age for whose reception the institution is not well adapted, has been the cause, only four additional pupils having been admitted during the past and present sessions. Another cause of this falling off has been the fact that a considerable number of pupils who have been admitted into the institution in its earliest years had completed their course and gone out into the world to seek a living. During the year the pupils admitted were 24 in number, exclusive of 15 females, of whom 16 were admitted to the school. These 24 pupils were seeking admission on September 30, and five in attendance had been temporarily detained at home, but were expected to arrive shortly. The number who left during, or at the close of, last session was 28, while six may either return or be detained at home until next session. The number who actually returned was 121. The only punishments thus far used in the institution have been temporary exclusion, or loss of the temporary suspension or removal, and even these measures have been but sparingly resorted to. In the industrial department, though educational and not pecuniary results are the objects aimed at, the amounts realized by the sale of work had been considerable. The sales of work made by the pupils during the session ending June 18th, 1882, amounted to $950, and the balance remaining unsold was $100; total $1,050.

The statistics for the year ending September 30, show the nationalities of the inmates of the asylum to be as follows : American, 3 ; Canadian, 57 ; English, 39 ; French, 3 ; German, 1 ; Indian, 1 ; Irish, 40 ; Norwegian, 1 ; Scotch, 15 ; Wendish, 3 ; Swedish, 1 ; total, 167.

The cost of maintenance of the asylum for the year was $34,846.15. Of this amount $14,944.71 was paid in salaries. The average cost per pupil for the year, on a daily average of 148, is $235.44.

The C. P. R. Programme.

The programme of the Canada Pacific Railway for 1883 demonstrates how that great corporation proposes to retard the development of the Northwest and gridlock the traffic of the West. On the western division the main line will be advanced to the Rocky Mountains, a distance of 320 miles from Point Indian Farm, which the construction reached last week, about 940 miles from Winnipeg. Selkirk branch—23 miles in length—will be completed. The branch will be completed from Emerson to the south western branch on the Canada Pacific Railway, a distance of 22 miles. On the eastern division the road will be completed to a point about 130 miles west of Galtier, and it is likely the Nipissing and Algoma branch from Wainwright River to Algoma, about 110 miles, will be completed. The line eastward to Thunder Bay will probably be completed to a point about 40 miles west of North Bay, and another 105 miles east of Prince Arthur's Sound. The main line will be available at all available points along the north shore of Lake Superior, and will be placed on vigorously. Short sections of track will probably be laid east and west of Pier River and at other points, but the work in this district is too heavy to admit of any close calculations on what can or may be done.

The able and learned London Advertiser informs us that " Louis Riel has shaken the dust of Canada off his feet, and is now an active politician in Manitoba." When pray, did Manitoba follow the advice of the Griots and decide ?

Pity the sorrows of a disengaged politician ! Mr. Blakely informed the world in his speech at the Toronto Convention that "If the Dominion elections had been delayed until their true time, a year later, it was my intention to propose a great National Liberal Convention to discuss Dominion issues in preparation for those elections." Shame on those wicked Tories, who wouldn't wait for Mr. Blakely's little gathering !

A petition from the Corporation of this city has been presented to the Legislature asking that the control of the police force be vested in the Municipal Council. The new Council is stronger in support of this measure than the old one was. So much for our local contemporary's appeal to the electors on this subject.

Do not be Deceived.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Dear Sir—The Little Biblical Christian Church at Elizabethtown had a very successful anniversary on the 24th and 25th of December. On Sabbath the 24th, Rev'd Mr. McAnally, B.A., of Madoc, preached a most interesting sermon on the "Last Days." The service in Paley's "Bible" was one of the "Sacred Services of the Nineteenth Century," etc., etc. In the Department of fiction "Justice Warner's Daughters" and "Weighed and Wanting" are concluded, and Julia and Helen, Hol's "W. Pieron, Mrs. Alexander and other popular novels, essays, etc. There are some excellent poems, many of them beautifully illustrated, and in the Home Pulpit is a characteristic sermon by Dr. Talman's "Hospitality." We can only say that the service was a most interesting one.

The church deserves hearty thanks for their sincere thanks to Mrs. Wm. Reynolds and Mrs. E. Thompson, for their kind and successful efforts in collecting the noble sum of $76 towards the church organ fund.

Ameliaburg Correspondence.

Jan. 8, 1883.

The latter part of the past week has been rendered memorable by the severe cold, while the register of heat and cold has not desisted so much of the latter as we have formerly experienced. The thermometer has dropped to 20° below zero, and the wind apparently drove the frigid air through the heaviest clothing. In connection with those from the far North-west, even they were not slow in stating that they headed this cold more than that of the prairie province. The roads running north and south in different directions are obstructed and require much caution upon the part of drivers while using them. Those having teams to be driven entered upon that task with a will, and will no doubt finish all they have hoped to do.

Considerable cord wood and logs are to be had at Belleville, whence a fair price is realized for them, and an excellent fuel for heating material is record for the latter.

The spindled condition of the ice on the bay and its freedom from cracks permits it to be driven on in all directions with perfect safety.

The entertainments throughout this place during the holidays have all been of a very successful nature, and the winter season promises to be a financial blessing.

While many have fallen a little short of their expectations, others have exceeded them, making the general result all that could be desired. The most friendly greetings of the new year continue to be exchanged between old and young, while those of a more timid nature, who have longed to say to some fond eye, "I am here," have done so, and that without breaking the acceptance of some beautiful present with the compliments of the season. An earnest appeal of this kind under such favorable circumstances, could hardly be denied, even by those who had already begun to lose hope.

We are pleased to be able to inform the many readers of the Intelligencer that persons do not run away from us, but rather to us, and that we are in a position to afford a safe haven to all who come to us.

The preliminary investigation in the Little River murder has been adjourned until Thursday.

—Mr. Bowell's case, Mayor of Toronto has so far been increased seventeen by one count.

—Mr. Burton E. Maitland, an aged man, has been indicted with $2000 against the Globe in an action of libel.

One of Earth's Angels.

"A little, Rose plays too, polkas and waltzes, but she likes that." "Who is your teacher?"

Monsieur Du Lune. He comes from Montreal twice a week to give us lessons.

"Little flattery!" kissing her and laughing, as the white hands bury again. "Papa, what is it he does?"

"A song, my dear."

"Well what do you like? Canta, Diva?"

"I like it! can sing the Lass o' Gavie."

"I shall try, if you wish."

She broke off, as she spoke, and a small drop slipped from her lap as she listened. What an exquisite voice it was!

So clear, so sweet, so powerful. The music wrapped itself around her, soft and smooth, like a silken robe.

Miss Dancon rose up, laughing at her sister's entrance.

"Oh, stop! Stop! Eeny, cried, imploringly.

"Stop! Stop!"

There was a loud ring at the door bell before Kate could answer. Captain Dancon and Grandmama had entered an instant before, and were rolling on the drive. The former started up now and hurried out of the room; and Kate stood still, leaning heavily on the doorpost.

"What is it?" asked Kate.

"It is the doctor," said the Captain.

Kate laid her hand on the girl's shoulder and shuddered silent and intent. They heard the door close, hear the voices of the Captain and his man Odgen; and then there was a rustle of feet in the hall and the stairs.

They are helping him upstairs," said Kate, drawing a long breath. "Yes, it is Mr. Richards."

Eeny looked as if she would like to ask some questions, but her sister sat down again at the piano, and then her father came back.

"The Captain and his older daughter were both excellent talkers and never let anyone get away. Miss Dancon rarely addressed her, but the Captain's cordial made amends for that.

City and Vicinity.

EVERY PARTIES continue to rage.
The trials at noon to-day was on time.
A large number went from here to day to witness the Trenton races.

The last session of the Board of Education of 1882, will take place to night.

Two visitors were accommodated with lodgings at the police station last night.

The Board of Education for 1883, will meet to-night for the purpose of organization.

Chief Justice Wallbridge of Manitoba, will leave for Winnipeg on this evening's train.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church met to-day in Napanee, to discuss the basis of Union.

A watch which had been stolen from Wm. Scott, was recovered last evening by Sergeant McDonald.

Woon has reached a very high figure and though there was good demand for it to-day, householders declined paying the high price ($5) that was asked.

The Oswego Post says—"Mr. Chapman, the marine artist, has just completed a fine painting of the schooner Nellie P. Downey, of Napanee, for the owners." The vessel is the property of Downey & Preston of this city.

In the Legislature on the 5th, Mr. Rose presented a petition from the Canadian Society of Engineers, for power to give to Ontario Engineers to regulate the width of heavy loads upon all vehicles conveying heavy loads upon the free gravel roads of their respective counties.

The Georgia Minstrels (the party that recently visited here) have arrived at their homes in Bradford. They stated to a newspaper man there, that they had been well received during their trip and they would—after a rest—take in the States. Some walked back; others were freight by freight.

Wm. Macoun, formerly a pupil of Mr. Narway during the last quarter, until his father's removal to Ottawa, passed the recent examination for promotion from the fourth to the fifth class at Ottawa. He scored 622 out of a possible 800 marks, (the highest in his room).

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The service, last night, was held in the John St. Presbyterian Church with a fair attendance. Rev. Mr. Turnbull conducted the meeting and Rev. Mr. Bowby and Mr. Farman assisted. Prayers were offered by the laymen and hymns were sung. The meeting to-day, with the President in the chair, was largely attended than yesterday. The services and addresses were both hearty and practical and enjoyed by all present. To-night's meeting will be held in the Baptist Church.

PHOCARIS is far and wide that Dr. Van Buren's KIDNEY CURE not only immediately relieves all Kidney diseases, but what is more important to the unfortunate sufferer, will ultimately cure him effectually.

County Judge's Criminal Court.

THE QUEEN vs. MAYER AND FAHEY.—Before his Honor Judge T. A. Lazier, Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1883. The prisoners were charged with the wilful killing of Maybelline, about $15.00 each, from Mr. Maybelline and Wallbridge, who keep an oyster eating house on Front Street, on the morning of Sunday, the 17th December last. Mr. Wallbridge depoed that he was a partner of Maybelline, and that he had been engaged during the 16th December in killing the oysters at the oyster house, and eating rooms, cooking and serving oysters. The prisoners came in together and had oysters in one of the rooms; then came out and remained in the shop, Fahey leaning over the end of the counter about four feet away from him, till was, and Maybelline sitting down near him, and the two oysters were in the small room, which was divided by two lamps, and some were leaning against the counter, which was about 7 feet long, 3 ft. high, and 2 feet wide. There was much loud talking about politics. Maybelline was in and out of the shop, getting crackers, &c. After 12, Maybelline, who witness "let's put the bill up," which he did, and then he and Fahey went on the window ledge, with his back to the shop. Whilst so engaged he heard behind him a rattling as of paper, and tried to turn his head to see, but could not. He soon afterwards told the crowd they must go, and as they went out two others came in for some oysters, when Fahey turned around and going on to the billiard room, he said to one of them, "Get out, I am about to call the police." Upwards of one hundred saluted to support, and all the leading men in the municipality were present.

THE OLYMPIA, Jan. 9.—An entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental music, dialogues, &c. in aid of the Church fund, was held at the Olympia Hall, Bankers' Row, and the children of Mrs. George, Mrs. Clark, and Mr. George, equited the program, which was a success.

On Dec. 25th, they had their Christmas Tree at the Town Hall, L'Amable, the gifts being dispensed by a living Santa Claus. Some of the presents were of a most costly description, the value of the whole amounting to over $200. Unfortunately the building was not large enough to contain all who came, and several high bids of visitors were unable to gain admission.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 10.

City and Vicinity.

Four drunks and four tramps were in the cells last night.

Mrs. P. S. Stevenson, formerly Freight Superintendent of the G. T. R., was in the city to-day.

BRIGHTON will have a two days' race meeting on the 17th and 18th, and will offer $275, in purses.

An astronomical authority says the comet has not disappeared, but is to be seen under the dog star. It is now moving north.

The delinquents who were in the cells this morning were liberated at ten o'clock and left the station with joy and gladness but very little money.

WESTWARD, the march of empire, &c.

A quantity of bailey went in the same direction, and Mr. Downing & Preston shipped 15 cars to Chicago.

The necessity for a new G. T. R. time table was made apparent here to day. The last four express trains that have arrived here averaged an hour and a half late each behind schedule time.

THE INTELLIGENCER congratulates Mr. W. H. Hastings, on his entrance into the ranks of the Bonapartes, which event took place this morning, and wishes Mr. Hastings and bride every happiness.

Court Justice Wallbridge left here last night for Manitoba. A number of personal friends visited the depot to see him off and expressed their good wishes for his welfare and prosperity in his western home.

At six o'clock this morning Prof. Bell's thermometer showed 8° below zero. Another instrument owned by the same gentleman registered 19° below. Mr. Starkey's self-registering thermometer recorded 9° below zero during the night.

A car of dressed beef was shipped from the Belleville stable yard for Winnipeg. A party of citizens will leave here on Monday next for the Prairie City to eat some of it, and if the result is favorable, they may settle out there.

Three men went from this city to the races at Trenton to-day, were few, as compared with the number that went up yesterday. When the mercury is away down, the drive from this city to Trenton is not one of condensed pleasure.

The Oswego Palladium says:—"Capt. Dennis, one of the owners of the Henry Folger, wrecked at Salmon Point, received Friday the amount for which the vessel was insured, $10,000. The $100 that was paid to him before the insurance extended was the best investment he ever made."

The younger portion of the community still amuses themselves by jumping on the stage and enjoying short rides along Front Street. No one seems to know what happened, the number who daily engage in this practice does not lessen.

The funeral of the late James Glass took place to the cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3:30. Many of our most prominent citizens attended by their presence the service, which was conducted for the deceased, who, in life, was generally believed to be of Hellville's most upright citizens.

During the Christmas vacation, some real naughty boys smashed 23 panes of glass in the Station Road School, and committed like, though less costly depredations at other schools. That's the way some of the ruling generation get satisfaction for the schoolroom after hours or threshed and scolded the teachers to no avail, before concluding themselves to not having been born early during the holidays.

We are always pleased to note the success of Hellville boys who have left home to push their fortunes. One of the most successful of these has been Mr. John A. Grier, who has for years held the responsible position of General Freight Agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, at Chicago. The amalgamation of the Central and Canadian Railways with the Canadian Southern, Mr. Grier, G. F. A., of the Canada Southern also. His old friends, to whom he is the same friendly "Jack" as in school boy days, witness his every success.

ADVISOR, though generally shamed, if asked, is occasionally productive of benefit. Mr. J. R. Hennessy, of Ameliusburg, knows this, and can demonstrate its effectiveness. He went to Ferry Point yesterday afternoon, and stated that he was going to drive seven females from the lower dock, those who heard him make his announcement endeavored to dissuade him from doing so, as there was a large crack in the vicinity of the Point. He didn't heed them but drove on, and in about five minutes afterwards, four men assisted him to drag his horse out of the water. Experience proves to be a teacher that few care to go back on.

The Toronto World says of Professor Richardson's entertainments, which are to be given in this city the 15th and 16th of January:—"The art entertainment in the Grand Opera House last night by Professor Richardson, although not the best, was the best usually, the auditor was left for the new Board to deal with.

The resignation of Mr. Ritchie was accepted and the Secretary was requested to inform the City Council of the vacancy caused by his resignation.

The Board adjourned for ten minutes. The Board adjourned.

The Board adjourned, seconded by Mr. Mason, that the thanks of the Board be tendered the Chairman, Mr. Wills, for the able manner in which he had presided over the Board and the aid he had given the several Committees of the Board by his counsel and advice during the year.

The Canadian thanked the Board for the compliment extended in the motion and asked that all should join him in dining at oysters. (Applause.)

The minutes were then read and approved and the Board adjourned sine die.

The new Board was then organized with the following present: Carmichael, Diamond, Davis, Haynes, Macom, Moore, McGinnis, Richards, Tennant, Vanallen, Walker, Wills and Holden. (The latter is a member of the Board—according to the statue—since 1st January.)

The Secretary then read the results of the general elections and do the selection made by the City Council, and requested the appointment of a Chairman.

Mr. Wills nominated Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Tennant seconded the nomination.

On a vote being taken the Secretary declared Mr. Johnson duly elected Chairman for the year.

Mr. Wills and Tennant conducted the Chairman to his seat.

Mr. Johnson fittingly acknowledged the compliment and said he trusted that he would fill his office satisfactorily.

Mr. Macom moved, seconded by Mr. Diamond, that the Committee to strike the building, that local agencies might take risks, the risks were refused.

The Town Tambour party and the Madison Square Company were all set for an entertainment.

Mr. Gilbert, of the Minnie Palmer troupe, who was married only two days ago, was burned to death in the sight of the multitude.

The Mayor has called a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to organize a salvage corps to search the ruins.

About a week ago the Local Board of Directors was asked to make a rate on the building, that local agencies might take risks.

The risks were refused.

The Town Tambour party and the Madison Square Company were all set for an entertainment.

Mr. Macom moved, seconded by Mr. Diamond, that the Committee to strike the building, that local agencies might take risks.

The risks were refused.

The Board adjourned to enable the Committee to perform their functions. The Board adjourned and Committees reported as follow:

FINANCE AND ASSESSMENT.—Mr. Holden, chairman; Messrs. Davis, Richards, Wensley, Wills, Tennant, Walker, Macom and Moore.

SCHOOL MANAGEMENT.—Mr. Diamond, chairman; Messrs. Maxon, Tennant, Moore, McGinnis, Vanallen, Wills, and Mr. Macom.

TRUSTEE BOARD.—Mr. Davis, Richards, Wensley, Wills, Tennant, Walker and Macom.

CITY HIGH SCHOOL.—Mr. Macom, chairman; Messrs. Maxon, Tennant, Moore, McGinnis, Vanallen, Wills, and Mr. Macom.

COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL.—Mr. Macom, chairman; Messrs. Maxon, Tennant, Moore, McGinnis, Vanallen, Wills, and Mr. Macom.

COLLEGE OF NURSES.—Misses Moore, Wensley and Richards.

STATION SCHOOL.—Messrs. Northcott, and McGinnis.

GATE STREET SCHOOL.—Messrs. Vanallen, Haynes and Carmichael.

The report was adopted and the Board adjourned.

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY

The inhabitants of the township of Andrewton, on the whole, as much as the generality of the subjects of Her Majesty, but especially a resident of that township tarried too long at the wine shop. Such was the case last Saturday with a farmer from Thurlow, who started from town very much under the influence of liquor. When on his way home two men, who were highway robbers, stopped him and held him (which was an easy task) the other went through his clothes for money but was unsuccessful in finding any, when the unfortunate man was roughly handled. On Sunday, the next day, the farmer returned to town, and when he got home he found that he had been the night before a discoverer that he had arrived there in such a drunken state that the landlord refused to give him any more liquor, although he did play a roll of hills in payment. Upon leaving he had dropped the money on the door, where the landlord found it, and keeping it safe returned it to the rightful owner, who received it with thankfulness.

WEAVERS OF PRAYER.—The services in the Baptist Church last night were of great interest and the attendance was large. Mr. Robertson and Rev. R. K. Burns conducted the meeting. The services will be held in the Congregational Church to-night and in the Bridge Street Church to-morrow night.

Mr. Hargrove's for useful Christian literature sold many books and tracts, and a number of lace, overcoat or suit of clothes—child handkerchiefs, kid gloves and mitts, and lace caps, and baby novelties, and men's undressing, corsets, lace edgings, lace curtains and lambrequins, shawls and minkies, mink and counterpanes, &c., and a number of other articles. The services were presented, cheap at Hargrove's.

W. DODGE, of Montreal, Quebec Co., N.Y., writes:—"I obtained immediate relief from the use of Dr. Thomas' Extract Oil. I had been suffering from a severe headache, and Headache, and Hammar's Bell Organ, Gout, Rheum., & Metzler, Chapped and others.

It is selected with the very greatest care, and treated with the most approved processes for preserving the flavor of the tobacco.

BELLVILLE, THURSDAY, JAN. 11.

City and Vicinity.

Wood is coming in more freely. An English mail was distributed here this morning.

PARTIES are said to be scarce in the back country.

The temperature at 6 o'clock this morning was 1 degree below zero.

A car of dressed mutton was forwarded from this city to day for Winnipeg.

Sixty persons lodged at the cells last night. Three of them were prisoners.

Mrs. JEFFREY LEWIS and company will appear here on the evening of the 25th inst.

The annual meeting of the Belleville Horticultural Society will eventuate this evening.

The membership of the Curling Club is now 40, and will probably be increased to about 60.

Sixty of the fast horses owned here may take part in the trotting races which are to be held at Brighton next week.

Mr. E. L. DOYLE, son-in-law of Mr. W. J. Northgate, of this city, has been appointed junior Judge of Huron County.

Mr. JOHN BOOREADALE, formerly of this city, is an officer in the U. S. army, and is stationed at New Albuquerque, New Mexico.

AMONG the items in the Provincial estimates is $9,266, under the head of "Pensions for the Poor," for the institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

Mr. P. O'BRIEN sent 16 men to Tweed yesterday to work on the Ontario & Quebec Road. He forwarded a similar party to the same point to-day.

The first portion of the report of the meeting of the Directors of the Eastern Ontario Dalrymple's Association will be found on the first page.

Mr. G. W. HALSTEAD has purchased the Roslin Hotel, and his management of the hotel will doubtless command a large share of public patronage.

An uninitiated visitor called the residence of Mr. H. H. EVERTON, on Tuesday evening, and the vigilance of the watch dog caused a hasty departure.

Five hands employed at Brown's foundry are busier than bees. The firm apparently have all the orders they can attend to, for the machine shop is full of their manufacturers.

In the Police Court this morning two drunks were dismissed and one was allowed his liberty on promising to appear on Monday next to answer a charge of abusive language.

We regret to learn that Mr. Jas. Hart, of Picton, the nominee of the Conservative party, for the Local Legislature, is seriously ill. He is receiving the best medical attention that can be procured.

The adjourned meeting of the last owners of this section and the members of the Spartan Club will be held at the Queen's Hotel on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The boiler for Drayton & Preston's new elevator is not ready, and work on the engine and other machinery necessary for that institution is progressing finely. All the work is being done at Brown's foundry.

A number of Colonists Ward, while crossing the bridge last night, had his car thrown. Another resident of this city had to drive to Dufferinville and back last evening before he discovered what was similarly situated.

The second half of the curling match between Bellville and Trenton, the first of which was played in Trenton in 1881 and won by the city of Bellville, was suspended on one point, and was unable to move with two rinks on each side.

$200.00 REWARD!

Will be paid for the detection and conviction of any person selling or dealing in any beggar counterfeits or imitation Hor Birrines, especially Bitters or preparations with the word Hor or Hor in their name or composition, and therewith, that is to say, any compound and extract, or any preparation and extract of the parts, or for any preparation in any way proceeding to the same as Hor Birrines. The genuine have a cluster of GARRY Hores (not this) printed on the white label, and are the present and most popular nostrum, especially for the Liver and Nerves.

Hor Birrines—In all others, and of pretended formulas or receipts of Hor Birrines published in papers or for sale, they are frauds and swindles. Whoever deals in any but the genuine will be prosecuted.

One of Earth's Angels.

"And that is nothing. I have never seen him. He is an invalid; he keeps his rooms night and day. You can see him and sister, and Ogden." "Mister! Don't!" cried Euse, opening her eyes wide in mystery under her brows. "There's something wrong somewhere, isn't there?"

"I don't know anything about it; it is none of my business, and I never interfere in other people's."

"You don't? Gramma—Gramma!" And now she was off again to try and get why don't she ask me about my visit to Ottawa, and what kind of time I had."

"Because I really don't care anything about it. However, I trust you enjoyed yourself."

"I enjoyed it!" shrilly cried Rose. "It was like being in paradise! I never had such a splendid, charming, delightful time since I was born! I never was so sorry for myself as for leaving."

"How beautiful!" cried Rose.

"How do, Euse?" said Rose. "Kate!" She had been both hands for Kate, who was in a seat of rapture, holding arms.

"My sister!" she cried. "My darling Rose."

Because she stopped for Doctor Danton was looking on with a preternatural gravity that provoked her.

"The doctor!—Excuse. Have you a pleasure and drive, Kate?"

"Very; and I am hungry after it. We have kept Miss Euse with us all day, and I am going to have luncheon with her in my room with me, Rose. Are you going Doctor? Won't you stay to luncheon?"

I curled; and Grace and her brother talked in pairs below stairs when the bairns rolled up to the door. Kate, all aglow from her drive in the frosty air, stopped her to kiss her, and then went on the portico steps, playing with a large dog. Kate had reason to know, as finding the master, stood a radiant vision, a rounded girl-like figure, arrayed in bright mackintosh and cap, with a coat lined with black lace and velvet, the perfect shoulders and arms bare, the cheeks like blushing roses, the sparkle sparkling as stars, and the golden hair, freshly curled, falling to her waist.

"How beautiful!" cried, under breath.

The next moment, Euse ran up the steps, and favored this vision of youthful bloom with a kiss, while Kate followed more closely.

"How do, Euse?" said Rose. "Kate!"

"Dear me!" said Grace, smiling away like a shooting machine. "It must have been a good drive, and I do love company. It's half past nine now, and I am afraid, to be honest, I am too morose—a sensible next evening, the theatre, dinner parties, matinées, morning calls, shopping and recreation." "Oh, I cried Rose.

"I am too nervous. Have you a pleasure and drive, Kate?"

"Very; and I am hungry after it. We have kept Miss Euse with us all day, and I am going to have luncheon with her in my room with me, Rose. Are you going Doctor? Won't you stay to luncheon?"

BELLEVILLE, SATURDAY, JAN. 13.

City and Vicinity.

All the stages were behind time to-day. The market to-day was as light as the poorest class of bazaar.

The roads running north and south are said to be badly drifted.

Drifts were innumerable to dry and the roads had to be cleared in many places.

The City Council will meet at eleven o'clock on Monday morning and organize.

Through wood retains a high figure the price of snow shovels hasn't advanced a cent.

THE ORPHAN GIRL OF LANNION.

A BRONTON BALLAD—AFTER THE ORIGINAL TEXT.

In sixteen hundred and eighty-three
To Lannion came dule and misery.

Mignon, an orphan as good as fair,

One darkling night when the hour was late,
Two travellers rang at the outer gate.

'Quick, hothouse supper, red wine and food;
We have money to pay, so all that's good.'

When they had drunk up, and paid the score,
They took their leave, and paid the score.

'And now shall my little serving maid come
With her lantern lighted to see us home.'

'Gentle, in all your ways be gentle, for we Are poor, and have but her to let it be.'

And so she has born her, so let it be;

Forth went the maid full of innocent pride,
Feasted and free, with her light by side.

Then they were far on their lonely way;

They began to whisper, and mutter, and say,

'Little maid, make your face as fair and bright
As the moon on the water, and you'll be safe.'

Freighted I am, said the maid, for me, but he—

He is as God made him;—no other, God wot;

And were it fair, I tell you true—

AY, a hundred times fairer—twice thought to

Her beauty, and twice born her, so let it be;

For I am poor, and have but her to let it be.'

Then they were far on their lonely way;

They began to whisper, and mutter, and say,

'Little maid, make your face as fair and bright
As the moon on the water, and you'll be safe.'

Freighted I am, said the maid, for me, but he—

He is as God made him;—no other, God wot;

And were it fair, I tell you true—

AY, a hundred times fairer—twice thought to

Her beauty, and twice born her, so let it be;

A Free Breakfast Table.

"We now have a free breakfast table."—Broadway Telegram.

Our Free Breakfast Table is in error. We have not a free breakfast table. The tables are still to have tea, coffee, bread and biscuits to taste. The cutlery and spoons are taxed. The tea, coffee, bread and biscuits to taste are parts of the Dominion tax bill. The breakfast is taxed. The crockery is taxed. The sugar is taxed. The flour is taxed. The bacon is taxed. There is not a free breakfast table to any overweening extent."—London Advertiser.

The Free Breakfast Table is not only an ex-M.P., but an ex-member of the Mackenzie Government. This gentleman knows that all the articles which he particularizes, except salt, coal and flour, were taxed during the time that the Government, of which he was a member, was in power, and previous to this time. Therefore, as he leads the inference that duties on these articles cannot have been imposed by the present Government, he is guilty of insinuating that which is not true. He knows that the Government of which he was a member found tea and coffee free of duty when they took office and imposed heavy duties on them, placing the same duty on the poor man's tea at 25c to 40c per pound, as on the rich man's tea at 40c per pound, instead of the 10c to 15c that the present Government equalized the duties on tea, making the rich man pay duty on his high-priced tea in proportion to their value, instead of making rich and poor pay the same amount of duty, regardless of the value of the tea which they consumed. He knows that the present Government, in order to Chapman, as far as possible, articles of universal consumption, such as tea and coffee, once removed the duty from them. He knows that he would have been compelled to impose a like tax on foreign wine if it were not in an appearance that session.

Nearly a hundred and fifty persons have been arrested in connection with domineering visits at Rome charged with Socialistic practices. A trial for high treason is impending.

The Hon. Adam Crooks was on Friday morning attacked by a party. At a late hour that night he had partially recovered from the attack and was enjoying a refreshing sleep.

The Prince of Wales unvailed a statue in memory of the late Prince Imperial of France at a Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, on Saturday, in the presence of a distinguished company.

The Minister of Customs has refunded all except one per cent of the duty on the instruments of musicians in Parlow, Brandon, and Winnipeg, exacted by the Customs officers at Hamilton.

But a rather sharp joke, says the Kingston News, the London Free Press has exposed the hollowness of Grit's laudations of Mr. Blake's capacity, as well as of Grit consistency.

In answer to an argument in the Tier it replied in a paragraph to the effect:

"The Parliament of Canada is composed of representatives of the seven provinces, which had in its Provincial character like political rights, etc., etc." The shallow sophistry of this reasoning drew down the burning scold from the Tier, but when it had exhausted the language of contempt, its opponent announced that the paragraph was quoted without the change of a single letter from a speech made by Mr. Blake in 1877. The inference is that Grit's journalists would condemn all Mr. Blake's utterances as unmeaning drivel but for the fact that he is the leader of the party, and also that they are willing to swallow any nonsense, as divine wisdom, which has its origin in the deep recesses of Blake's brain.

Speaking of conservatism, says a column:

Does the Ontario Government propose to assume the power of granting Street Railway Companies the privilege of running cars on Sundays? Such legislation would be another advance in the scheme to deprive municipalities of their right to govern purely local matters. If Mr. Moawad would let us know about Provincial autonomy, and pay higher respect to the Municipal autonomy, he would shield himself from the charge of political demagogism.

The Ottawa Vindicator remarks: "As the wool growers of the Dominion are asking for protection it may be interesting to state what has been the effect of the tariff upon the woollen interests of the United States. In the year 1860 there had 23,000,000 lbs. of wool. In 1880, under a protective tariff, the stocks numbered 40,000,000 lbs. In 1880 the production of wool was 60,000,000 lbs.; and to-day the production is 300,000,000 lbs. annually."

In 1877 Canada shipped 13,400,000 lbs. of Great Britain; in 1882 she shipped 43,000,000 lbs. in five years. Besides sending 45,000,000 lbs. to the United States, we feed our hungry brethren across the Atlantic, and we sent during the year 1881 alone a total export of live stock to Great Britain, and the commencement of the cattle exporting business in 1877, amount to 283,000 head of cattle and 343,285 sheep. The business of exporting cattle, it is gratifying to note, promises to enlarge, for Canadian beef is living down the prejudices Englishmen used to entertain regarding it and is taking a place on the British market second to that of Old England herself.

The Montreal Journal of Commerce, (Independent) is opposed to the disallowance of Provincial Acts which do not affect the people of other Provinces. Still, despite Mr. Blake it says: "There can be no dispute as to the constitutional power of disallowance by the Dominion Government, just as the Queen has the power of disallowing our Dominion Acts."

City and Vicinity

These vagrants were within the confines of the police station last night.

ADM. JONES and Frost were unable to present in the Council to day.

Nearly three tons of fish were shipped to Buffalo, N. Y., last week by Levi Taylor.

The local horses that will enter to the Brighton trotting meeting, will leave to-morrow.

HON. LEWIS WALLBRIDGE was sworn in as Chief Justice of Manitoba at Winnipeg on Friday.

REMMER Prof. Richardson's art entertainments at the City Hall to night and to-morrow.

The Street Surveyor's men did good service in breaking up the ice on the slippery crossings.

Rev. Messrs. Stacy and Turnbull conducted the meeting in the City Hall last night. The attendance was small.

Even the Police Magistrate has to endure affliction. On Saturday he received a bundle of poetry and a letter from Gay.

While driving to the city this morning, one of Wren's team fell, from the Preston road and cut one of her legs badly.

There will be a general meeting of the Curling Club to night, for the purpose of appointing Skips and transacting other business.

The express train from the east, which arrived here at ten o'clock yesterday morning, was due on the preceding evening at six o'clock.

It is probable that a meeting of the Ferry Committee of the City Council with the Ameliasburg Council, on the ferry question, will take place some day this week.

The dial on the western side of the door requires some attention. If nothing is done for it, the probabilities are that it will spread itself on the sidewalk in front of the City Hall.

A STATEMENT of the cattle export trade recently made, shows that during 1882, M. F. R. Livingston, of this city, headed the list of shippers. His exports last year included 15,717 cattle and 21,132 sheep.

WILLIAM ARTHUR, in the beginning between Clarke & Co., and Templeton's corners, on Saturday evening, and was knocked senseless. He recovered in a short time. Several persons fall in the same vicinity without serious consequences resulting.

The temperature on Saturday night, A.D. Stirling informs us, was 20° above zero. Last night the thermometer marked 10° above zero on the east side of Mr. Stirling's house and 8° on the west side of his house. Prof. Bell's thermometer marked 10° above zero at 7 a.m.

is the Police Court to-day. Thomas McCarthy got six months for vagrancy and Thomas White and Andrew Murphy five and four months respectively for the same offence. The charge of abusive language preferred by Ross Cooper against James McCarthy was dismissed and James Kane and James Wilshar, drunkards, were discharged.

Great interest is taken among the members of most of the Protestant Churches in the united effort of holding gospel services during this week in the new City Mission. The object is to bring the gospel message to the people, and as it is known, demands that there is no doubt all will take part. The services will be held under the direction of the Evangelical Alliance and will no doubt be successful. They commence this evening at 7:30 (D. V.) and will continue every evening this week except Saturday.

THE MEMBERS of the Charitable Association are holding a grand meeting to-night, at the hall of the First Presbyterian Church, to consider the important part of a Church service in the Church. The subject was introduced by Rev'd W. Stacey, in an essay that was full of information concerning the history of sacred music used in worship, as well as practical suggestions about the manner of conducting our praise to God in the Church. The members present took a deep interest in the discussion of the subject, and in their different comments expressed their very desire for spiritual enlightenment and moral improvement.

BLAINE'S TROUBLES

PORLTLAND, Jan. 15.—Marcus P. Norton has filed a bill in equity in the U. S. Court, praying to have the lease of the European & North American Railroad to the Maine Central, and the Boston & Albany, given over to said Norton, who holds or is trustee of $300,000 bonds issued by the Consolidated European & North American R.R., which are alleged to have been transferred without consideration, leaving no property upon which foreclosure can be made.

WINTER PROBABILITIES.—Toronto, Jan. 15.—Lakes, winds mostly westerly, fair colder weather, furries of snow in some proceedings dropped.—The Mail of the 15th says:—“Some time ago a motion was made at Osgoode Hall to commit to gaol Sheriff Hopk. of the county of Hastings, on the ground that he neglected to make his return to write of execution in his hands in a case of Pleas v. Meyers, pursuant to an order in that behalf. Judge Hatch sentenced one man to 60 days and the rest to 30 days. Sheriff Hopk. was charged with being negligent in this respect.”

RAILWAY BLOCKADE IN THE NORTH-WESTERN STATES.—Duluth, Minn.—The Great Northern, the Milwaukee and St. Paul, are still blockaded with snow or the trains are either entirely blocked with snow or the trains are being held up by the sheriff who has taken interdictary proceedings relative to the goods in his possession, and as the lawyer says, has purged his contempt of the court.”

PROCEEDINGS DROPPED.—The number of the living day for the week ending Jan. 15, the second number of the new year, is as follows: The Primitive Folly of Islam, Contemporary Review; Thomas Carlyle's Apprenticeship, Scottish Review; Four Months in Morocco, Blackwood; The Factor's Shooting, Blackwood; A Relic of Swift and Steele, Temple Bar; No New Thing, Cornhill; Baboo English, Chamber Journal; An Autumn Flood, St. John's; The Slave of Society, Everyman's Library.

A new volume began on the first number of January, offering a convenient opportunity for beginning a new subscription. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,000 pages a year), the subscription price is £5; while for £10 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $40 monthlies or weeklies with the Living Age for a year, both postpaid. Listel & Co., Boston are the publishers.

PEOPLES IN DEATH.—Two persons, it is reported, were found dead, and it is feared that many others perished.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Three colored men, George Johnston, Abner Graham and Wm. Bush, have been arrested for shooting Michael Johnson at Tottenville on Christmas' eve, where there was a general riot at Johnston's hotel. Johnson may not recover.

There will be other arrests. The House adjourned.

DISPACHES FROM CANADA.—In Milwaukee, Dakotas and Northern Iowa say that all the railroads are either entirely blockaded with snow or the trains are being held up by the sheriff who has taken interdictary proceedings.

MORNING DESPATCHES.
AMERICAN.

MANHATTAN'S WEEKLY REPORT.
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—There were 342 arrivals in the United States reported to Broadway during the past week, 85 more than in the preceding week, and 139 more than in the corresponding week in January 1882. Canada had an increase of 11 over last week.

Mr. T. C. DUNLOP, of the American Consular Association, has been appointed for the purpose, and as it is known, demands that there is no doubt all will take part. The services will be held under the direction of the Evangelical Alliance and will no doubt be successful. They commence this evening at 7:30 (D. V.) and will continue every evening this week except Saturday.

THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—The subject was introduced by Rev'd W. The members present took a deep interest in the discussion of the subject, and in their different comments expressed their very desire for spiritual enlightenment and moral improvement.

V.) and will continue every evening this week except Saturday.

THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—The subject was introduced by Rev'd W. Stacey, in an essay that was full of information concerning the history of sacred music used in worship, as well as practical suggestions about the manner of conducting our praise to God in the Church. The members present took a deep interest in the discussion of the subject, and in their different comments expressed their very desire for spiritual enlightenment and moral improvement.

Mr. T. C. DUNLOP, of the American Consular Association, has been appointed for the purpose, and as it is known, demands that there is no doubt all will take part. The services will be held under the direction of the Evangelical Alliance and will no doubt be successful. They commence this evening at 7:30 (D. V.) and will continue every evening this week except Saturday.

Daily Intelligencer.

BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, JAN. 14.

Fire Trap.

The effect of the dreadful fire which occurred in the Newhall House, Milwaukee, by which many lives were lost because of the lack of appliances for the safety of the inmates, has been to cause people at home, and to ask themselves whether the local authorities where the public assembly are in any safer condition than was the Milwaukee fire trap. The effect of the burning to death of no less than three hundred people in a circus in Russian Poland, and of four persons in the Planters' hotel at St. Louis—one of the largest and finest hotels in that city—has called to mind the importance of the same subject to the collection of statistics of manufactures by the Morat Government is fully sustained. It is reproduced on the first page of this day's issue.

'Mr. Hooper, M. P., Treasurer of the County of Lennox and Addington, was upon investigation, found short in his accounts with the County, and at the next election was dropped like a hot potato by his Conservative (corruptionists) friends Mr. S. S. Peck, M. P. P., Treasurer of the County of Haliburton, was upon investigation short in his accounts with the County, and at the next election was unseated by his Reform (friends) party, at the instance of a Minister of the Crown. Comment is unnecessary.—Peterborough Review.

What's that? nothing. Did not Mr.

Mowat appoint to the position of Registrar of a County a prominent politician who had been unseated by the Law Society of Ontario, because he applied to his own uncle for nomination?

These laws have been totally disregarded as far as we place more than in Belleville. Is there one of our hotels which has the necessary provision for the escape of its inmates in case of fire? We know not, but leave it to the authorities to have the fact determined, as is their duty. Do our places of amusement offer reasonable chances of escape for those who assemble there, in case of fire or even smoke? Of these there are none in the City Hall, and we unhesitatingly say "No," in the case of the former, which is much the most frequently used. It is on the third story of a high building, to jump from a window of which would be fatal. It has but one mode of ingress and egress, of which the public know anything, and a mere description of the same will suffice it to show that this hall is a death-trap of the worst description. Entering by two narrow doors, which swing inward—not outward, as prescribed by law—the visitor ascends to the second story by a staircase not more than eight feet wide, the stairs being at right angles; a second stair is found at the foot of which is a stone door that is usually closed in winter, except a passage of four feet wide or thereabout; ascending to the top of these stairs the visitor, if destined for the reserved seats or the parquette, turns to the right about, or if for the gallery goes straight ahead. There is a door leading to the entrance of the House, in particular the payments are not forthcoming. A more circuitous route, however, is that to the stairs during which general elections are held the colonization road expenditure becomes very high. Look at this.

Says the Mail: It is a curious and suspicious fact that the provincial election may not be the details of the colonization road expended. Even when the money passes through the hands of Mr. Peck, the payments are not forthcoming. A more circuitous route, however, is that to the stairs during which general elections are held the colonization road expenditure becomes very high. Look at this.

It is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing" 2 Tim. iv. 8. It will be seen, then, that in order to receive "crown," we must love the appearing of Jesus. "I charge thee therefore (says Paul) "watch and pray, for thy enemy he cometh like a thief in the night; let him not catch you unawares; but stand always in prayer, that ye may be accounted worthy for your faith; and that ye may have the reward of salvation." 1 Thess. v. 1-10.

At Chihuahua Mexico, the Indians killed a herder and then attacked six soldiers who were escorting four prisoners. Two of the soldiers and all the prisoners were killed.

Four informants will be examined at Dunbarton castle on Saturday, when it is expected they will reveal the existence of a plot to murder Earl Spencer and the officers of his staff.

—Mr. D. B. Woodworth, the Conservative member for King's, N. S., whose election was contested, has been confirmed in his seat by a decision of the Supreme Court of that Province.

—In London, Ont., was the scene on Sunday night of a successful double burglary, the post-office and one of the principal stores in the city having been robbed, the one of between three and four hundred dollars in money and stamps, and the other of fifteen hundred dollars in cash and two hundred dollars' worth of silk.

"Do bold what you do all!" Boldly and valiantly did Kildare-Wort the greatest remedy for liver, bowel and kidney diseases, rheumatism and all complaints before it. The same effect of Kildare-Wort produced in its cleaning and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the veins or vessels, it is removed from the body. A small two story brick dwelling in good repair, and frame shed in rear on the east side of the street, rent $100 per month.

BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, JAN. 15.

City and Vicinity.

The temperature last night was 4° above zero.

Coasters and skaters were in their glory to day.

A SUCCESSFUL skating carnival was held at Warkworth last night.

EIGHTY traps and a prisoner registered at the police station last night.

THERE are 19 prisoners in the County Gaol.

Four of these are booked for the Central.

There was a Battalion of skaters on the ice at the mouth of the river yesterday afternoon and evening.

Mr. H. H. Morris will show the people of Campbellville how he can skate, on the evening of the 1st p.m.

The annual meeting of the West Hastings Agricultural Society will be held on Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the City Hall.

The Committee of the City Council will meet to night and decide on what evenings they will hold their gatherings for business.

ALL DUNNET sent a position signed by a large number of raters to the Ontario Government, and no "report," as stated in our issue yesterday.

BALTIMORE ESS., M. P. F., went to Toronto yesterday, and P. E. Pepe left for Chicago this morning, and Ald. Starling started for Montreal at noon.

The leaders of Messrs. Briggall & Thompson for the new uniforms for the Oldfathers' and Military Band has been accepted, after a very close competition.

A horse belonging to Sam'l Laster, took a very hurried run from the front of Downey & Preston's to Bayore's store, without the control of a driver. George Patterson stopped the animal before any damage resulted.

The Toronto News Company have sent us a copy of "Letters to a Young Merchant, and Tales to Clerks," by P. E. Pepe. This little brochure is cleverly written and ought to be read by those to whom it is more particularly addressed, who will find in it much valuable counsel. Price, 30c.

THESE WAS A runaway on the Canfield Road this morning, which resulted in a liberal distribution of dressed beef, with which the sleigh to which the horses were harnessed was loaded. The animals pursued their course down Mill street and across the upper bridge. They were caught at the upper end.

HARVEY CROOK fell on a Front Street crossing near the City Hall, on Saturday evening and had badly cut above the left eye. The baptism of blood the crossing where the mishap occurred received, would indicate that the fall was a very severe one. Dr. Hope attended to the injury and Harvey is once more around.

ONE COPY OF BAXTER'S MANDIBULAR BITTERS will relieve SICK HEADACHE. One bottle effects a cure. Price 25c per bottle.

A running show will take place on the 24th of Jan. Gentry's fair in the Campagna.

THOSE who may have occasion to cross the bay, may by the exercise of a little extra care and time, avoid the large crack that extends from the vicinity of the Eagle Mill, two thirds of the way across the bay towards Zwick's Island. The led on one side of the bay abutted for a large portion of the distance.

KINGELL'S house was left in charge of a woman opposite the police station this morning, when the horse became restive, the woman pulled on the lines, and the animal began to kick. Thereupon the woman exercised her muscles all the more and her lungs as well, and Officer Haynes defended the prisoner.

Interim Sessions.

In the above court, this morning, before His Honor, the County Judge, William N. Cross, was charged with a little extra care and time, avoid the large crack that extends from the vicinity of the Eagle Mill, two thirds of the way across the bay towards Zwick's Island. The led on one side of the bay abutted for a large portion of the distance.

CROSS. The evidence against the prisoner was conclusive and he was found guilty. The Judge intimated that he would send Crook to the Central Prison, but postponed sentence until tomorrow. C. L. Colman appeared for the Crown, and E. G. Poston defended the prisoner.

Poison Court.

In this court, this morning Francis Lockerley was charged with having, on the evening of the 10th inst., attempted to set fire to the house of Mr. D. McEwan, who was relation to him.

REPLIES TO THE MAGISTERIAL COURT, the County Attorney said, he was not prepared to go on with the case, and on being asked when he would ready said: three or four days. In the absence of Mr. D. McEwan, who was relation to him, he would make application to the magistrate to adjourn the trial. Rev. D. Mitchell presided and Rev. Messrs. Stagg and Kello, and several others from Queen's University lent their aid. The whole affair was thorough success.

THEY was a large attendance of members of the Curling Club in the Club room last night; and there was enough business transacted to justify the gathering. Invitations to ice combats were tendered by Peterborough, Coburg, and Brockville, and the Club was informed that it had been drawn against the Caledonians of Montreal for the model contest. It was decided to give two rinks to Montreal and have two rinks to the Captain of the club.

McEwan's echo: Ships for those clubs which are to play in Montreal, and W. H. Campbell and Jas. Gordon for those that were invited to play the first half of their game here on Friday.

PROF. RICHARDSON's entertainment in the City Hall last night was not largely attended, as it seems impossible to pack a hall in Belleville for such a class of entertainment. From New York the Professor took the audience to England, showing the sights of the metropolis of the world, through India, China, and Japan, by way of California and over. The scenes are generally very good, particularly the winter scene of Niagara Falls, but the Professor lacks the descriptive powers necessary to make such an entertainment lively and interesting. Some of the views did not come out so clearly as might have been expected. This was owing to damage sustained by the Professor's instrument in an accident at Kingston. There will be an entire change of views to-night, when London's winter scene will be given.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Toronto, Jan. 16.—Lakes, light to moderate winds, generally fair weather in some localities. Stationary or slightly higher temperature.

CLAYTON COMPANY.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Belleville Company Co. was held on Monday afternoon in the office of the Secretary, A. G. Northrup, Esq. In the absence of the President, Mr. M. Sawyer acted as Chairman. The reporter's report was read, showing receipts for the year $1,931.07; disbursements $1,912.26; leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands of $18.81; liabilities reduced during the year $694.54; liabilities about $3,500; assets about $2,500.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors, namely: John Bell, A. G. Northrup, John Breton, Jas. Macoun, M. Sawyer, Dr. Hope, J. Foran, Jas. Smith and G. S. Tickell.

FIGHTING THE POLICE IN DUBLIN, Jan. 16.—There was an affray here this morning between the policemen and some young men who attempted to deprive their officers of their revolver. Four of the young men were arrested.

DEATH OF A NOTED CIRQUERIAN.—Lexington, Va., Jan. 16.—Rev. W. C. Pendleton, formerly chief of the artillery of Confederate army of Northern Virginia, and rector of Grace Church, died last night.

THE ALBANY FIRE.—Albany, Jan. 16.—The fire is still burning, but under control.

SHOOTING DOWN BY AN EARTHQUAKE, Vienna, Jan. 16.—There was a shock of 5.5 on the Richter scale, and spread so quickly to the state that within ten minutes the flames were beyond control. The hall is entirely ruined.

UNION CITY, Pa., Jan. 16.—The Cooper Block was burned yesterday. Loss, $37,000.

SANKEY HORN, Jan. 16.—The beach here has been badly cut away by the sea, and the Government buildings undermined.

A TERRIBLE.—New York, Jan. 16.—The President of the Illinois Central Railroad desire that Vanderbilt is trying to secure control of the road.

THE HERALD Washington despatch says: A strong movement is on foot among influential Republicans to reach an understanding when, after considerable tariff debate, there shall be substituted for the Senate and House Tariff Bills a measure making a reduction in the internal revenue and a few reductions in the more prominent articles on the tariff lists. It is now thought that the most prominent resolution is to lay the bill on the Senate, and which can be obtained at this session.

HEAVY FAILURE.—New York, Jan. 16.—Nathaniel Borden, who endorsed paper for Alonso Fallot, the failed note broker, to the amount of $1,000,000, has assigned no statement.

ACCIDENTALLY POISONED.—WABASHA, Minn., Jan. 16.—John Ornstein, a very prominent citizen, swallowed some washing fluid, mistaking it for water. He was alone in the house, and wrote to his absent parents telling them of the accident. He then swallowed several raw eggs, to neutralize the action of the alkalies. He hitched up a team and drove for his life to the nearest physician. He is now in a critical condition.

THE GREAT PLAINS FIRE.—St. Louis, Jan. 16.—The Bakers' Home fire is now charged to burglar. A guest told of meeting burglar in the hallway breaking in doors. Several of the guests lost valuable, which they left in their rooms when they ran from the building.

The Nova Scotia Coal Trade.

The Trade Journal, of Halifax, gives statistics of the coal trade of that Province, which it introduces by saying: "The shipments in nearly every instance are largely increased over 1851, and compared with 1850 are really wonderful.

A glance at the figures of 1852 and 1853 will convince the most sceptical that, under the fostering influence of the N. P., the coal trade has taken a bound never equalled in the previous history of the trade.

The importance of the coal trade of Nova Scotia cannot be overestimated. It must be admitted that the future progress and prosperity of this Province depend, in no small measure, upon its success in mining and marketing, and of those coal in the king.

The amount paid out by the several coal companies in the province last year, in the form of wages alone, put down at a million and a quarter dollars, leaving out the amount expended in repairs and extensions. Our coal mines give employment directly to some four thousand men and boys, and besides these there are thousands more whose means of livelihood depend upon its prosperity, such as engineers, brakemen, stevedores, labourers, teamsters and ships, with their hundreds of families. When the coal trade is in a prosperous condition, the whole province feels of how great benefit and of what importance the trade is.

The figures given by the Journal, are those for the chief mines only, which have been supplied by the directors and managers of the mines. They are as under, and compare with those representing the output 1852 as follows:

	1852	1853
Spring Hill	210,000	187,000
Halifax	20,000	20,000
Industrials	141,299	84,425
Yale	100,000	100,000
Acadia	98,145	77,305
Gowrie	65,333	31,335
Cape Breton	100,000	100,000
Little Glace Bay	71,000	23,700
Total.	730,164	318,300
Subs.	318,300	411,864

Thus the effect of the N. P. has been to increase the output of these leading mines upwards of one hundred per cent. The Grits have constantly asserted that the N. P. has not affected the coal trade of Nova Scotia favourably. In the face of the above figures, they will find few to believe their dogmatic and unfounded assertions.

Editorial Previews.

In his judgment in the case of the Grand Junction Railway Company versus the County of Peterborough, Mr. Justice Gwynne expressed a decided contempt at the power of Provincial Legislators to incorporate Railway Companies. If that doubt be well founded—and it ought to be determined—it may be to the advantage of Bellville with regard to the Grand Junction.

The Toronto News remarks:—"An advance has been made in the way of providing the military force of the Dominion with Canadian made articles. The cartridges to be supplied to the force will henceforth be of Canadian manufacture. Some parts of the clothing are all that are now imported, and the quantity of these is not sufficient to induce any one to go into the manufacture."

The Brigadier correspondent of the Peterboro' Review sends the following:—"A teacher teaching in a school section not many miles from Lakefield, during the year took a holiday or half holiday at different times during the year without asking the master, and was not called to account of course style. The trustee kept an account of the lost time, and in paying the salary recently, deducted therefrom the amount to compensate for the lost time. It is said that the county school inspector sided with the trustees, and the deduction on account of lost time was not allowed, in which case perfectly logical, but it would be a warning to other teachers in the county to desist from a practice which by all accounts is becoming far too prevalent, of turning out school a half day frequently on some slight pretext."

The report of the Commissioner of Public Works gives the mileage of completed railway lines in Ontario at 3,744 63 miles. Of these 1,464 miles were completed prior to and 2,280 63 since Confederation. In the year 1852 applications were received and aid granted under the "Ontario Municipal Drainage Act" to thirtysix townships, the total amount of the advance made being $24,800.23.

The Globe says:—"It is understood that the House is likely to be prorogued before the first week in February, which will necessitate considerable diligence on the part of the members. It is probable that the session will be adjourned on the 1st of March, the year 1853 applications were received and aid granted under the "Ontario Municipal Drainage Act" to thirtysix townships, the total amount of the advance made being $24,800.23.

The Brigadier says:—"The House of Commons will be opened in their rooms on Saturday, the 27th inst., for the purpose of taking the necessary steps preliminary to selecting a candidate for the Ontario Legislature. Let there be a full attendance from every part of the riding."

The Brigadier says:—"It is understood that the proceedings were brought to a termination at 10 o'clock. The new Presbyterian Church was opened and dedicated on Sabbath last, the services having been conducted morning and afternoon by Rev. Principal Grant, and in the evening by Rev. Dr. Craig.

Trenton Town Talk.

The slipping between Bellville and this place is capital and there is almost an entire absence of pitch holes along the road.

There is a regular village of fish shanties on the ice opposite here and many fishermen are engaged very well.

The Brigadier says:—"The most popular here and the first of "clacial hammers" is numerous. The bats are all sizes—from the fairy like affair that will "tell the seas over" with one person as a crew—to the craft that will accommodate a half hundred. Mr. John McLaren is building a very large boat which he soon can be completed, and he will be the first to have a boat to sail on the lake.

Mr. French has a short bill before the Legislature which ought to pass. The second section reads—"Any commissioner or inspector who shall either directly or indirectly solicit business, patronage, or any advantage or benefit to himself from the holder of an application for a license shall likewise incur a penalty of five hundred dollars."

The boat will wait with interest the date of this measure.

Swindlers Abroad.

Any one has represented that we are very much interested in any bogy busters or swindlers abroad, and that they are chancing honest folks, or that we will pay any sum of their bills, or debts, they are frauds and swindlers, and that we are to be beware of them.

The Brigadier says:—"The man who married women shall be deemed to be bound only to their separate estates unless a contrary intention is specified, and separate property acquired subsequent to the date of contract is also to be held liable."

Eriehaques are reported from Carlsbad, Austria, and Arco, Spain. At the latter place they are greatly alarmed.

A six hundred houses in Mohacs, Austria, are flooded, and half of them have fallen in.

Armadust's flat warehouses at Buffalo have been burned. The damage is estimated at $10,000.

BELLEVILLE, THURSDAY, JAN. 18.

Which are we to Believe?

"It might be that they did not act wisely in making compensation for private or vested rights."—Hon. Edward Blake on the Streams Bill of the Toronto Convention.

We have been over and over again, and the same thing was done last night in a similar manner, to ascertain what was necessary in the public interest, and that the compensation provided by it for the majority of cases was perfectly adequate and equitable.

The Hon. Edward Blake is, as all the world knows, the leader of the Grit party, and the Globe is the leading journal of the same party. These authorities are both presumed to speak for the Grits on party matters. But when Mr. F. Mowat, a full party in convention, announced that "full provision for private or vested rights" had not been made, and that The Globe, two weeks later, and with full knowledge of Mr. Blake's opinion, states that the compensation provided by the Act is "perfectly adequate and equitable," those members of the Grit party who have read Mr. Blake's speech and the editorial in the party organ cannot fail to be at a loss to know which is right. For our part, we do not particularly like either this arrangement, but we would point out that, since Mr. Blake's speech was delivered, the question has been brought into the greatest possible prominence by a debate upon it in the Legislature, and that, in order to give even a semblance of foundation to the position assumed by the Government, it was necessary for Mr. F. Mowat, who spoke on behalf of the Administration, to repudiate Mr. Blake's views. This is the reason why we consider that, as the leading organ has followed suit, it is thus evident that the supporters of Mr. Mowat will stick at nothing, in order to bolster up their inquiries.

Editorial Brevities.

The London Times has, after a long course of injustice to Canada, been forced into an acknowledgement of the property of the Dominion. In a leading article in its issue of December 29th the "Thunderer" says:—"Canada has, perhaps advanced in modern prosperity more than any other colony, during the past three years, and in the settlement of its western territory, and the development of this territory by railway communication, the Dominion has a magnificent future in store."

The London Free Press very happily disposes of an attack of its Ottawa namesake. The former said adropes of the recent appearance of the London journal in a news dress:

"We congratulate our London Out, namesake on its appearance in a new dress. But what puzzles us is that the new dress is all French. We hope that it is a temporary one of our country's coming out in an improved style."

To which the London Free Press replies:—"Many thanks! It is true that the type now used is 'French' in this sense, that it was manufactured at Montreal. But then, we are not of those who regard our fellow subjects in Quebec as 'foreigners,' after the fashion of Mr. Charlton and the members of the great 'Reform' convention. We regard them as our brothers, and as towards Canadian greatness. They and their neighbors hold an important position among us, and instead of being snared at as 'Foreigners' should be treated as brothers, as they have always treated us in Ontario."

The same journal was also successful, in a series of articles, in putting the utterance of Mr. Charlton as full of never-failing wisdom. In discussing the disallowance question with its local contemporaries the Advertiser, the Free Press said:

"The Parliament of Canada is composed of representatives of the seven Provinces, each with its own Provincial character, and its political rights. Ministers who represent the office depend upon their retaining the confidence of the Province which they represent, and above all a power, the exercise of which would obviously tend to bring them into representation from all Provinces. This is the reason why, in the maintenance of Provincial rights, the power of disallowance is exercised upon which, some reason may arise by Ministers of this power, to be quickly followed by the application of the constitutional remedy by appeal."

The Advertiser condemned this reasoning as shallow, ill-considered and utterly contemptible; but imagined the feelings of the learned editor of that journal must be being informed that the paragraph was a literal quotation from Mr. Blake's speech, as can be found in the sessional papers of 1877!

The London Advertiser still insists that the Rivers and Streams Bill was not entirely condemned by the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of McLaren v. Caldwell, and gives its opinion that "such a statement can only arise from a rush of ignorance to the head." It is useless to argue this question any further; but for a journal which asserted that Louis Riel had left Canada and was figuring as a politician in Manitoba, and that condemned Mr. Blake's disloyal disallowance as the utterance of its local contemporary, to talk of ignorance, is rather presumptuous. The opinion of so ignorant a critic is not of any value.

The Mail furnishes an admirable exposition of the failure of the Crooks Act as a means of reducing drunkenness and crime. It is reproduced in other columns.

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY, JAN. 19.

City and Vicinity.

For a day a sea are sent west over the Midland.

FRANC AMYOT, a prominent horse buyer, of Montreal, is in the city.

Two entries were recorded on the police station blotter this morning.

DOWNER & PARSON shipped nine cars of barley to day to Peoria, Ill.

Wood comes into town quite freely and the prices obtained for it are good.

THREE unimportant cases were disposed of in the Police Court this morning.

PRICE of wood—according to the idea of the average ratepayer, is high. It must go down.

REV. MR. MITCHELL is booked to give an address at a tea meeting in Campbellford on the 29th.

WOOD on the G. J. R. dock was suspended all day. The weather was too superfluous.

The Trenton horse that ran away yesterday is in a critical state. His left shoulder was dislocated.

The annual missionary meeting will be held in St. Thomas church on Sunday evening after service.

Should you want a Nurse girl, call at the City Mission School room or at the Industrial School, Dundas Street.

The noon day train was late to-day. It started at forty five minutes and—at the last report woud up at two hours.

The ice harvest has begun and the glacial granaries of the city are supplied with crystal sixteen inches thick.

This is to be a grand concert in Brighton on the 24th, and Miss Caverly, of this city, will be one of the contributors to the programme.

Tax union service in the new City Mission building was well attended last evening. The addresses were short and pointed and influence good. Service this evening.

The tug BOAR is to be provided with a new boiler, which will be the property of the establishment of G. & J. Brown. Other improvements will be made to this craft and the requisite material is on hand to do with. When the work is finished the tug will be in A 1 shape.

An accident of a very serious nature occurred in the afternoon yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hanley, an employee, while working at a clay pit with a pick was levelled with a shot of clay which broke his right hip and pinned him internally—and very seriously.

THE NEW ELEVATOR will be completed in a perfect state for work, in about four weeks. The new boiler has been placed in position, and the internal arrangements of the building are being forwarded satisfactorily. Twenty-four men are now employed on this work.

The writer has varied experience of the Rev. Mr. Stinson, accorded to his well known ability as a lecturer, and the lecture he will deliver in the Workingmen's Temperance Hall, on Friday, 19th inst., of more than ordinary interest. The public should encourage the Association by a large attendance. Collection to defray expenses. 2s.

The party of Montreal units in praising very highly the Rev. Mr. H. Ryan, which are devoted to the propagation of the world, many of the most notable sites can be seen in which are beautifully illustrated. Not only are the illustrations of exquisite beauty, but the lectures is a fluent speaker, with a pleasing delivery and a graceful and honest manner. Mr. Ryan has been engaged to lecture on the antiquities of the Mechanic Institute, and other parties will be announced hereafter.

Mr. F. R. LIXWORTH, of this city, is largely interested in the Dominion Abattoir Company, of Montreal. In speaking of him the Star says:—"Mr. Lixworth subscribed a large amount of stock to the Dominion Company no later than Saturday but it was not with the view to amalgamate but to secure the best possible accommodation for his own business." The gentleman intends, during the approaching season of navigation, to carry on an extensive business in the shipment of cattle from this port, and has interested himself in the Dominion Abattoir Company mainly for the purpose of securing the accommodation of the abattoir stock yards for his cattle before they are shipped. He also intends to engage extensively in the dead meat trade, and will slaughter the animals and prepare the carcasses at the abattoir.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Toronto, Jan. 19.—Larker, easterly to northerly winds, fair to cloudy weather, with light snow in some localities, not much change in temperature to-day, probably colder to-morrow.

The best place in the city to find odds and ends of household articles is at Hennessy's. After an extensive stay in the store, he has an extra amount of odds and ends of Twine, Manila Cloth, Alex. Lewis, to pay $5.63 back taxes instead of the amount charged on Roll.

Moved by the 1st Deputy Reeve, seconded by Francis Murphy, and resolved, that Arthur Wallace's township tax be remitted on account of his having paid $2.44 on June 1st, Magrath's tax $4.66 on July 1st, and John McLean's tax $3.83 on Aug. 1st in the south of 33, and another $1.40 in the south of 70.

On motion the following sums were ordered to be paid:—Henry Bright, $30; road job 1; Jas. Fitzgerald, $15; road job 1; W. Knowles, $26; road job; John Cassidy, $26.50, as per bill of lading; Frank D. Johnson, $20; road work; Henry Latimer, a p.m.; Wm. Davis, teacher; Wm. School, No. 21, $10. $21. remitted on Peter Luis' taxes; $3.45 on the Misses Baker's taxes; Miss Pringle, a poor girl, $16.

It was moved and seconded, that the motion for the house making Miss Pringle's orders payable to W. J. Wilson, be rescinded.

Moved by the 1st Deputy Reeve, seconded by the 1st, and resolved, that any order given to the Misses Pringle be paid to Chas. Pringle.

Moved by the 1st Dep. Reeve, seconded by F. Murphy, and resolved, that John Flynn's road work be thrown off, and that he be allowed to work on his own road until further notice, also Frank Allen's and Wm. Kornitz's road work be thrown off.

Moved by the 1st Deputy Reeve, seconded by the 1st, and resolved, that Isaac Pringle and Wm. F. Allen get each an order for $50 at present to fence Coddington road, balance to be paid when the fence is completed; also Patrick Hines $30 for right of way.

Moved, that there be no action taken in the case of Frank Allin's right of way. J. C. Jameson, a carpenter, who resides in village lot 10 and 11 received and held a bill to the next meeting of the Council, the Clerk to give all the information possible about the lots.

Francis Murphy gave notice of a By-law limiting the number of tavern and shop licenses.

Moved by the 1st Dep. Reeve, seconded by F. Murphy, and resolved, that the Council go into Committee on the Whole on By-law, the 1st Dep. Reeve in the chair.

Moved by Francis Murphy, seconded by the 2nd Dep. Reeve, and resolved, that the blanks in the By-law be filled with the names of Jas Alexander and David Lurkin as assessors for the year 1882.

Moved by F. Murphy, Reeve, that the Committee on By-laws rise and report. Report adopted, passed and referred.

Council adjourned to the 10th of February 1883.

The Salvation Army has made an attack on the Rockwood and opened a barracks there.

The new Presbyterian Church will be opened on the 23rd by Principal Campbell.

Mr. Webber, of Seymour, in stepping from a cutter the other day, fell and broke one of his limbs.

In filling the position of Auditor, Mr. W. Morton, of Campbellford, will receive his salary.

A telegraph wire 3 feet 7 inches long, was recently snatched near Percy boom. Big fish stories are again in order.

The opponents of Mr. Bell, Reeve of Seymour, threaten to treat him on the ground of want of qualification for the office.

Moved by the 1st Dep. Reeve, seconded by Francis Murphy, and resolved, that the Reeve be authorized to look after the Latimer case in the interests of the township and get witnessess to the same.

One hundred and twenty dollars to be collected to put up in the different polling stations.

Moved by the 1st Dep. Reeve, seconded by the 1st, and resolved, that the time be extended for the collectors to collect taxes, up to the 15th of February, 1883.

Council adjourned to the 10th of February 1883.

The English failures for year were over 1,000 fewer than in 1881.

The smallest plant is the Arctic raspberry. A six ounce will hold the whole branches and leaves.

An eloquent couple found a clergyman on board a Georgia freight train and were greatly pleased with his talk. The man said "March 1st" was at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

An old law in Holland condemned criminals to be wholly deprived of salts as the severest punishment in that most country.

The effect that they were a prey to in turn parasite.

Very well informed correspondent in Liverpool writes to me he has seen the Egyptian as bitter against foreigners as at present, and he predicts a revolt at the ear of Hosanna.

An unsuccessful attempt at body-snatching was made on Wednesday night at the Napanee cemetery. The graverobbers stole the remains of a deceased person, and were to be wholly deprived of salts as the severest punishment in that most country.

The effect that they were a prey to in turn parasite.

The Glasgow Legislature was opened by Lieutenant-Governor Robtissell with the usual ceremonies on the 18th. The Speech from the Throne, however, calling a session of the Parliament, was delivered by the "Colonial Alliance" coming over from England directed by Baron De Chaillot. They declare that thirty-three legions have been formed in the west and centre. Several officers of the army are implicated in the conspiracy, and depots of arms exist. That during the 21st inst. the rebels were to march on London.

THE TROUBLES IN FRANCE.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—A Paris correspondent says D'Orsay, a Bonapartist member in the Chamber of Deputies, gave notice to the president of police last night that he posted Prince Napoleon's manifesto outside of his own residence. The police were unable to prove the identity of the author. The police have been called in to quell the disturbance. The police have been called in to quell the disturbance. The police have been called in to quell the disturbance.

THE DODSON CONSUMPTION CURSE.

This is beyond question the most successful drug medicine we have ever sold, a few doses of which will cure consumption, cough, croup, and bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of consumption is well known.

Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other manufacturer has ever made.

The Dodson Consumption Cure is a great success.

Do not be Deceived.

In those times of quick modish advertisements everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which is safe, but which is not always successful when they are recommended.

They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, and Rheumatism, and Urinary difficulties. We know them to speak the truth.

They are safe, prompt and painless.

Sure, prompt and painless.

They are safe, prompt and painless.

Daily Intelligencer.

BELLEVILLE, SATURDAY, JAN. 20.

Rivers and Streams

To the adequacy of the compensation provided by the Rivers and Streams Bill, we have quoted Mr. Blake against, and the Gobts for, the same. The former is not only in the better opinion of the two, but is fortified by the Dominion Minister of Justice in his official capacity and by the members of the Dominion Cabinet as a unit. But let the Bill speak for itself. The fourth section—which is the one that bears upon the point—reads as follows:

"The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may fix the amount which any person entitled to toll under this act shall be at liberty to charge on the savings and expenses of the river or stream, or on the amount to be paid to time to time, the same; and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may fix the amount to be paid to, and take into consideration, the original cost of construction to maintain the same, and to cover interest on the original cost, as well as such other amounts as shall be necessary to meet the expenses of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council (that is Messrs. Moodie, Macmillan, and Caldwell [in this instance], seen and considered).

Is there in the above section adequate provision for compensation? Thereself evidently is not, as the Act places the owner of the property in a position to charge what he will, as far as the mercy of the Government, which fix such rates as to benefit an influential friend—such an one, for instance, as Mr. Caldwell but to evidently was. Contrast with one of the provisions of cap. 183 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, as revised by the Timber Slides Act of 1851, will illustrate fully the care with which the Ontario Government provide for their friends. The Act referred to provides:

"The tolls for the first year shall be calculated upon the estimates hereinafter required . . . and in all future years SHALL BE calculated upon the actual number of cords of timber of different kinds of timber expected to pass down the stream, and the receipts and expenditure . . . and the toll SHALL be so calculated that, after defraying the necessary cost of making and supplying timber roads, and of removing and paying an annual sinking fund, which investment at six per cent, will be sufficient to pay back the amount of the tolls, the amount of their paid up stock at the end of the time limited for payment of the tolls, and the cost of the tolls, the balance of the receipts may be applied as pds per bushel and in no case exceed After deducting the interest expended and invested in the said works."

The Act first quoted, being the interest of a friend who had timber to run through an opponent's slide, leaves it open to such tolls as they please.

The Act last quoted, being in the interest of friends who own slides down which other people's timber is to be brought, provides that the friends of the powers that be are to be paid such tolls, as will pay working expenses, provide sinking fund, and yield, as well, an annual dividend of fifteen per cent.

These facts speak for themselves.

The report of the Commissioners of Crown Lands for Ontario states that the collections of the Department for 1852 amounted to $1,005,152. The gross disbursements amounted to $203,444. The number of acres sold during the year was 106,021, the amount realized from which was $106,292. The locations under the Free Grants and Homestead Acts numbered 932 or 1,233 acres, and 5,624 acres were sold to 150 located persons, located in former years, were reserved for non-performance of settlement duties, and 602 patents issued to free grant settlers. The sum of $111,600 was expended on colonization roads.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Mail writes: "We endorse his every word: 'It is unwise to trust Mr. George Airey Kirkpatrick, M.P., for Finance. He will be the next Speaker of the House of Commons. Mr. Kirkpatrick has had long parliamentary experience, and has earned his spurs as chairman of the Public Accounts Committee and chairman of the Committee of Supply, in which positions he has displayed the abilities which are essential in the presiding office of a great deliberative body. He is also very popular with both sides of the House, has proved himself an able debater, and has a high reputation as an able lawyer. His seat will be given to him in the chamber of the House; the choice of the House could not fall on any one who would receive a more general welcome to the exalted position of First Commoner.'

Elijah G. Butler, of Amelanchier died recently from the effects of an apoplectic fit. He never recovered from the effects of the attack, and was buried in Poy's Loring ground last week. A few days later Stephen Flindall, of Murray, was found dead at home, where he had been a short time before to feel his death. He was a well-known farmer, and was universally esteemed for his many good qualities. He was a brother to John F. Flindall, Esq., of Trenton.

Several measures were advanced a stage, including the Bills to Encourage Tree Planting, respecting the Colonization of Marriage, and respecting the office of Inspector of Prisons.

TUESDAY, Jan. 18.

The House went into Committee on the Bill to regulate the law respecting insurance institutions, which it was proposed to pass en bloc. Mr. Bell protested on the ground that the Bill should be read clause by clause. The Speaker ruled that it could be dealt with en bloc, and it passed through Committee.

The House being moved into Committee on Supply, Mr. Macdonald, in his motion after the vote that the bill be struck out and the following substituted:—"The revenue of the province being to a large extent derived from timber, the supply of which is rapidly decreasing, the public interest demand that greater care should be taken for the preservation of it, and that it should be provided by law that no additional territory shall be placed under license without the consent of the Legislature's representative in the house."

He supported his motion in an able speech, in which he stated that during the last fifteen years the revenue of the Province from timber had amounted to upwards of seven millions and a half. He dwelt on the rapid exhaustion of the timber supply both in Canada and the United States, and asserted that the timber resources of Michigan were being so quickly depleted that the Americans contemplated the removal of the city so as to save their supply by importation from Canada. He alluded to the frequency of destruction by fire, and said that the Legislature should be made responsible for timber fires.

The House adjourned until the 21st instant.

The failure is announced of the Timber Slides Act of 1851, will illustrate fully the care with which the Ontario Government provide for their friends. The Act referred to provides:

"The tolls for the first year shall be calculated upon the estimates hereinafter required . . . and in all future years SHALL BE calculated upon the actual number of cords of timber of different kinds of timber expected to pass down the stream, and the receipts and expenditure . . . and the toll SHALL be so calculated that, after defraying the necessary cost of making and supplying timber roads, and of removing and paying an annual sinking fund, and providing an equal annual sinking fund, which investment at six per cent, will be sufficient to pay back the amount of the tolls, the amount of their paid up stock at the end of the time limited for payment of the tolls, and the cost of the tolls, the balance of the receipts may be applied as pds per bushel and in no case exceed After deducting the interest expended and invested in the said works."

The Act first quoted, being the interest of a friend who had timber to run through an opponent's slide, leaves it open to such tolls as they please.

The Act last quoted, being in the interest of friends who own slides down which other people's timber is to be brought, provides that the friends of the powers that be are to be paid such tolls, as will pay working expenses, provide sinking fund, and yield, as well, an annual dividend of fifteen per cent.

These facts speak for themselves.

TARIFF LEGISLATION. NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The Tariff's Washington special says that in the Republican party there is a strong desire to have the railroads taxed, and the Ways and Means Committee are in a hurry, lower than those recommended by the Tariff Commission. Hisense assert that the committee, the leaders of the Tariff Bill will not be satisfied by any action of the Committee. He thought that after the Bill was taken up no other changes should be considered, and it would be better to have the railroads taxed than to have any measure which was roundly applauded, in favor of the tariff, and the bill was passed on the strength of the railroads.

Last night the grand old stage, handsomely set with fresh scenery and new properties and furniture, was further graced by Miss Jeffreys Lewis, a woman in the new California and Wallack's Theatre sensation, called "La Belle Russes." * * * Miss Jeffreys Lewis is an actress. She plays the part of "La Belle Russes" right down to nature, and last night made a genuine hit. She is emotional to a high degree, and her sister, Catherine Lewis, in many of her movements, Miss Githell had main support, is an excellent actor. "La Belle Russes" will be the sensation of the week.

THE first class company with a new play and a celebrated star, Miss Jeffreys Lewis, caught to draw a full house on Thursday evening next. Seats can be secured at Reynolds'.

TUGS best place in the city to find odds and ends of Dry Goods, cheap, and winter's trade, he has an extensive amount of odds and ends, and a large quantity of fabrics, Woods, Prints, Flannels, Cottons, Cretonnes, Trimmings, &c., &c., which he will sell very cheap in order to clear them out. There is a bargain in every piece.

HIT OR MISS.

Bachelor Brown was a quiet man; whose scheme of life was a saving plan; who had no wife, and was at ease. With nobody but himself to please; he had no care, and was a happy man. Ex-s. & Malvern or Bay Ryding; The poker's orders were few; the party, Of looking sharp and growing stout, He thought a wife was a useless bore, And nothing but a burden were. And he always knew of a sudden draught, And he always frayed when others laughed.

We wonder not that Bachelor Brown Was not much liked by his neighbors; and most of the folks their eyes would fix On him with a kind of pity. But he only thought they were very shy.

He fell out on Christmas Day

That lads and lasses went out to play. When snow lay deep, and covered by A snowdrift, the winter was the sky. A snowball battle was just begun.

A ball was thrown with a sudden whirr, Fly a light and elastic ball, and fun.

The boy who threw it, Bachelor Brown.

Who starts to the widow, her son?

Wh is the villain that dared to do this?

They all hold back, were up to a scratch, But the girl stood up and told her dad, And we having seen this, say, had.

And so, I will tell you, my good friend,

To join us in the snow ball fight.

When Bachelor Brown saw the pretty face, And marked the figure of grace,

With a smile, and a light laugh, Fall in love with the sweet village belle.

A very strange thing had come to pass,

Was found that the fractured pane of glass,

Which had given Bachelor Brown a start,

For he thought there must be a fault in this,

Ex-s. & Malvern or Bay Ryding; But with such success did he play his suit,

With a smile, and a light laugh, Fall in love with the sweet village belle.

"Now, what's this?" said the widow,

"You'll have to sign the note," said the lawyer,

"Get a judgment and sell it."

"No one would buy it."

"Can't we garnishes anybody?"

"No; he never has anything coming to him."

"Nothing to attach!" said the widow,

"Nothing."

"So he'll be sold," said the lawyer, after scratching his head for a minute, "suppose we marry him?"

"We'll—"

"He is poor. You are a widow, and you might—"

But he has a wife and seven children," she interrupted, she interposed.

The only way we can do is to watch and wait. I'll keep my eye on the man, and the minute his wife dies, slopes, or gets a divorce, I'll serve papers on the law and bring him to trial."

Three years ago you presented me with a pair of earrings. They were from the doll's estate."

Yes."

Two years ago you presented me with a pair of blue bracelets. They were roll plate, and only cost $6."

Lost year you placed on my hand a diamond ring. The ring is washed and the stone is from Lake George, and they cost about $3 per bushel. Harry!"

Yes."

Are you thinking of making me a present this year?"

No, come."

Then do not seek to cheat and deceive me. Do not throw away your money in trifles and baubles, but buy something that will help me to get rid of this man. In the city where I live, a certain young man in this city, who has sold himself down to the parlor alongside of the girl he hopes to marry some day or other, she began to marry, New Year is almost here."

DAILY INTELLIGENCER MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1853

BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, JAN. 22.

A Contest for the Legislature.

As a result of their disastrous failure to carry the constituency for the Mowat Government in October last, when they were beaten by the overwhelming majority of 260 votes, we have given permission to believe that they will run in West Hastings again in their determination to allow the Conservative candidate to go in by acclamation at the general election this year. This conclusion was, however, changed by direction of the Convention of Toronto, and accordingly on Saturday a small gathering of the party was held at the residence of Mr. E. G. Sims, of Cobourg, who placed in his hands the mandate of the Mowat Government. Sir Sims stipulated, we learn on the best of authority, as a condition of his acceptance, that he should be allowed to run as a sort of independent—approving of some and disapproving of others of the positions assumed by the Government—but what he expects to gain by such tactics we are at a loss to say. We can see what Mr. Sims may mean—he is an out-and-out supporter of that Government which tried hard to prevent the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, whose friends, when in power refused to build the Murray Canal or to erect a public works in this city, and as such he must be judged. It is to be regretted that another contest has been forced upon the electors of the constituency, as no new issues have arisen since October last, when the people of West Hastings, like most of the Mowat troops, but as our opponents have pursued their usual factious course, nothing remains for the Conservatives but to demonstrate once more that Mowat finds no favor with the majority in West Hastings.

The Liquor Law.

The Trenton Review is so stupid that we will for once take it for granted that its misrepresentation of the INTELLIGENCER is made honestly, according to its knowledge and as the result of its lack of perception, in the first issue of 1852:—

The Liverpool Review is still holding on the stringencies of the present License Law of Ontario. All medical houses have now got rid of it, and are in full favor of the present law. Even sensible persons, who honest and upright as the law is, are for the rest of the world bring, would not go back to the old system if it were possible. The Review, however, has been put down, that competition is kept moderately in check, that their themselves are not to blame, but that they are in a position of not only facts, they are rising to a position of not only facts, but of respect in the community, and that the Liquor Act has secured all that for them.

Now what are the facts in this regard? Simply these, that the INTELLIGENCER desires the abolition of the Liquor Law, and distinctly that they have been allowed to go unchallenged under the present law, to go unchallenged under the present law. We do not, as the Courier faintly intimated, favor an extension of the hours for selling or the abolition of existing restrictions; but we do demand the abolition of the political Boards of License Commissioners, and the return to the Municipal Councils of the power of issuing licenses and appointing their own Inspectors. If our conservative imagines that these views are not popular, it will be a rude awakening to one of these days—ruder even than it had in October last, or than our local contemporaries had when it asked the electors of this city to reject the men opposed to the creation of expenditure by the Police Commissioners.

The Courier, with a degree of moral objectivity for which we could scarcely have ventured to give it credit, goes on to say:—

“Most a Commissioner, who gets not a cent for his services, will be deprived of his freedom as a man.” What a fine idea! The Courier, however, says to the doctrine that he must not introduce candidates for legislative honors to a friend for fear of being charged with corruption!

Our contemporary discreetly, but with characteristic unfairness, suppresses the fact that the County Attorney assisted in the nomination of the Grit candidate to the tavern keeping him at the last election for the Legislature, doubtless because he knows that no defense can be offered for that official.

In reply to its first query, let us put another to it, namely, Would not Mr. Lee have selected some person having personal influence that the Commissioner to have introduced him, did not he calculate upon the Commissioner's having, through his position as such, an influence that he could otherwise have possessed? I offer no proof, but so the attempted defense falls to the ground. Query: If Mr. Shaw, who is appealed to, and any official of the Ontario Legislature, will pursue the same course in the riding as Mr. Clarke and the County Attorney did in Belleville, would not the “truly liberal” Courier be amongst the strongest of their defenders?

The Courier alleges that, in our war against the political features of the liquor law and against the incipiences perpetrated in West Hastings under that law, we have been guilty of “distortion of facts.” This is a strong assertion and requires a direct answer, which is that it is absolutely and unequivocally false. We have time and again offered to prove our charges before any fair tribunal that our opponents might select—before a jury in court. We have never done so, and have not opportunity, due to the silence of the parties charged, afforded the strongest possible proof, short of the facts being sworn to in court, that they are guilty, as charged. Perhaps the editor of the Courier, in defending those who have thus confessed their guilt does not see that he places himself on their level, but so it is, and his misrepresentations and untruth will sink him still lower in public estimation, if that be possible.

Editorial Briefs.

SOME of the Opposition newspapers are very anxious that Mr. George Macdonald and myself, of the two hosts—Lounas and Garleton—for which he was elected in June last. As the House of Commons has not as yet been constituted by the election of a Speaker, there is no authority competent to receive a resignation. Hence Sir John cannot oblige his very dear friends of the opposition to do this, and we will make a choice between the two constituencies; and we venture the prediction that whatever that choice may be the Opposition press will declare it unsatisfactory.

In the first eleven months of 1852, says the Review, there were burned in the United States—362 hotels, 99 churches, 7 hospitals, 14 asylums, 6 almshouses, 62 schoolhouses, 13 college buildings, 20 courthouses, 2 custom houses, in all 385 public buildings. These have been estimated as having a total value of $60,000,000, and it is claimed these losses were due to faulty construction, two thirds of which might have been saved by an additional expenditure of one cent per foot.

The Toronto Review asserts that business is not prospering with the usual size of the postal cards, which they regard as too small to be put upon letter files, and hence many are lost, which would otherwise be preserved for future reference. The remedy suggested is that the cards should be enlarged by about three inches and a half, “not for the purpose of affording a larger space for correspondence, but for the purpose of having the cards of such a size that they could be easily put into the pockets of the postmen.” There is no necessity for increasing the bulk of the mail in the way suggested. Either have separate files for postal cards, or paste them upon sheets of letter paper, and the end desired will be attained without troubling the postal authorities.

The philosopher of the London Advertiser informs us that “Ontario was never alive to her own interest at this moment.” Glad to hear it; for in such case Mowat must go.

The accidental omission of the word not in a recent quotation from Mr. Blake's speech at the Toronto Convention materially affected the import of the quotation. What Mr. Blake said, as reported in the Review, was, “They [the Ontario Government] did not act wisely in making full provision for private or vested interests.” Will the Advertiser, which copied the quotation, as erroneously given, please correct it?

The Bradford Review has of late been publishing interesting and instructive sketches of the Cabinet Ministers and their duties. The Advertiser's sketch of the Minister of Customs is reproduced in another column.

“Do bold what you do at all.” Boldly do we affirm that Kidney-Wort is the greatest remedy for liver, bowel and Kidney diseases. The roots of Kidney-Wort are easily obtained. They would like, however, give them a name of their own, and not try to sell them to the imagination of another; but as they know the original individual instincts of softness, instead of merging them into a common desire and effort for the public good. Like us, they are neglecting the opportunity of selecting the best men in the community. Like us, they are offering an inducement for the great and noble to come forward, and for the self-sacrifice of candidates for whom no useful practical knowledge before appointment—the arrangement for a six months probation to prove executive efficiency in office, promotion from the ranks in vacant offices, &c., &c. But, curiously enough, like Sam Slick's horse “with a thousand virtues and only one fault,” which, however, was found in practice to cover up all the virtues; so in this case no feature is masked which may almost destroy its usefulness.

The President is compelled to divide these appointments among all the different States of the Union in proportion to population.

Instead of adopting the business method of taking the best man wherever found, the appointment must still be regarded as “patronage,” and not merit, and the whole country will be disgraced and disgruntled.

Like us, they are appealing to the original individual instincts of softness, instead of merging them into a common desire and effort for the public good. Like us, they are neglecting the opportunity of selecting the best men in the community. Like us, they are offering an inducement for the great and noble to come forward, and for the self-sacrifice of candidates for whom no useful practical knowledge before appointment—the arrangement for a six months probation to prove executive efficiency in office, promotion from the ranks in vacant offices, &c., &c. But, curiously enough, like Sam Slick's horse “with a thousand virtues and only one fault,” which, however, was found in practice to cover up all the virtues; so in this case no feature is masked which may almost destroy its usefulness.

The President is compelled to divide these appointments among all the different States of the Union in proportion to population.

Instead of adopting the business method of taking the best man wherever found, the appointment must still be regarded as “patronage,” and not merit, and the whole country will be disgraced and disgruntled.

BELLEVILLE, TUESDAY, JAN. 23.

City and Vicinity.

What dial of the city clock is correct? To day's train from the west was two hours late.

One drunk and one tramp occupied apartments in the police station last night.

The Police Magistrate to-day turned out into the cold world one sorrowful prisoner.

Mrs. Rose and Appleby, of West and East Bassings, went to Toronto last night.

Among the departures for Montreal to-day were Messrs. Horne and Charles Wilkins.

The Baptist congregation of this city have two other churches looking after the pastor they want, Rev. E. J. Stoba.

In the most northern township of this county there is enough snow on the ground to give the inhabitants sleighing next summer.

Mrs. Gay, wife of James Gay, the poet, died recently in the Hamilton asylum where she had been an inmate for several months.

The temperature was 2° below zero at ten o'clock last night and was probably lower after that hour. At six this morning, the thermometer showed 3° below zero.

A LADY, while driving in the city, from Wooler, yesterday, had two of her fingers broken. A veterinary rendered the necessary assistance and liniment with great effect.

Poars were demolished by the action of the frost last night and as a result, the plumbbers of this city fell so late, that they intend applying for several cottages at Massasauga Point.

The party who took the Black Persian Lamb cap from Bleeker Street Church, on Monday evening, will save themselves a good deal of trouble by leaving the same at the INTELLIGENCER Office.

Mr. P. LARIN, a prominent contractor of St. Catharines, was in the city to-day and stopped at the Royal Hotel. He is interested in a large contract in the northern part of this district and will go out to size up the situation.

The man who lost the $12 fur cap on the last Sunday suffered from the effects of the cold to such an extent that a quantity of brandy had to be applied to his head externally, to relieve him. He won't forget that drive for a while.

Sure is the quantity of orders which Mr. John G. Frost has recently received, with that he is now compelled to keep the machinery of his factory in motion at night, in order to satisfy the wants of his customers. This state of things is attributed to the N. P., but as Mr. Frost is a prominent member of the Reform Association, it is a query how it strikes him.

The Ferry question will be considered at a meeting which will be held in the City Council chamber to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. The Township authorities of Amherstburg and the Ferry Committee will be present.

The Committee appointed by the Council to confer with the Midland Directors on rail wagon rates which affect the inhabitants of Belleville, have informed that the Board will meet with them. The date of the meeting will be named hereafter.

There will be a pigeon shooting match at the Carr's, the 3rd con., Sidney, to-morrow. All needed arrangements have been completed for it, and George's well known hospitality will serve to add to the pleasure of those who participated in the contest.

YESTERDAY morning, Robert Badgley an employee of the Lake and Jenkins, while crossing from the rear of that firm's premises towards the Dafos House office, fell in the roadway, fracturing the left knee pan, and sprained the ligament of the limb. Dr. Wilson is attending him.

This cold evening did not prevent the people from attending the Union Service in the Old Mill Building. Mr. C. P. Holted, M. E. Northrup, Parker and others took part. Mrs. Holton presided at the organ. Service this evening, Ray. D. Mitchell, will D. V. deliver an address. These services will be continued.

This city has sent out some talents to the ranks of eminent book professo- fessors, who have just been crossed by two song and dance artists, who show such prettiness that their friends have advised them to go on the road. They will appear in a specialty expressly written for them entitled: "Little Johnnie Doherty, the Tailor."

The demand for accommodations at Albert College is such, that the institution cannot provide for the wants of all who wish to reside and board there, and residents in the vicinity of that seat of learning have given evidence of this by providing for the care of number. It is a pleasure to know that the College is proceeding—as it deserves—a large percentage.

Shortly after one o'clock on the morning of the 22nd, the residence of Peter Lowry, on Main Street, in the village of Milford, Prince Edward County, burst.

Such waste rapidly with the flames spread, that nothing in the house was saved, except what appeared to be some instances, and all the household lost. The doors and its contents were entirely consumed. There is an insurance of $350.

PEACEWARD people have always been good neighbors, and a goodly patronage, in return for which they have been enabled to witness some smart contests on the turf.

They are good neighbors, who are willing to help each other, and to put up a meeting to place on the spot, and the town, and it is probable they will succeed, as they are going about such work in a business-like way. If arranged, the meeting will take place with three weeks.

The Cleveland Leader of Nov. 14th, 1882, says: "In the 'Caliphore' Manor" is the Bell Rule was displayed as an emblem in the stage door, a relic of the days when it was a great hotel. It is a beautifully sculptured marble bust, which was found in the ruins of Leptis Magna, and is over 1,000 years old. It was presented to Miss Louise Lewis during her recent visit in London, by her father, who is an eminent artist there. The bust is of the Caliph of Bagdad, Jaffar-Lewis was loading his famous theatre, New York, which position she relinquished in order to concentrate her career as a singer, and it is a goodly proof of her ability.

The bust is a work of art, and it was to appear on Thursday evening is now and was a success at Wallack's last year. Therefore the bust is still with her, and a new one ought to be made, which would be a great ornament in the hall in Belleville. Book planter at once.

James Dunwoodie and Mr. McNeil had gone to Chatham, to take charge of a new schoolroom which had been erected by Mr. McDonald, builder of the G. J. R.

Old friend and to name Mr. G. Mitchell, writing from Winnipeg, says that he, in company with another gentleman, went out to a party of four's party. The result was, 61 prairie fowl, 19 rabbits, and 37 partridges. They were caught in a blinder, and had not been to his residence. There seems to be a mystery about this fire, yet there is not the least apprehension of incendiarism.

DAILY INTELLIGENCER.*One of Earth's Angels."I heard you, sir," that bright glamer said, "you're a right gallop. She manages her horse well, and speedily left the village behind, and was riding along a broad road at remarkable intervals with French farm houses.At once, Roger slipped—there was a short pause, and then he said, "I must get her to remain her fest, and would have to follow her example, uttered a groan, made a wry face, and cause to halt."Rose was unhurt, and extricating herself from the stranger's constraints, rose also.Doctor Danion looked down at his plate with a tinge of color in his beet-red face.He spoke not, but, except that faint and tran-quill sound, it never moved him. He told these stories through a glass in Germany, and every one laughed except Kate. She could not laugh, the laughter of the girl had no power, and was not strong.Kate had a strong, commanding power, and was the girl's joyless face had increased.She had first, had done, Danion in his life, and had a load of hopes trouble !

With a smile in her mind, Kate said to the maid-servant to her room next morning. Some lace was to be worn on a new dress. Eunice generally did such little tasks, but, except that faint and tran-quill sound, it never moved him. The girl sat down with the rich robe by the window, and bent easily over her lace. "Do you know, Doctor Danion, I am a simple girl, and have no money?" she said, smiling.
"Yes," he said, "but it will be a great deal of trouble.""Trouble!" cried Rose. "Don't talk about trouble. Do you want me to go to that town?""If you will be kind, I stopped there last night. Tell old Jacques—that's the name of the inn where I stopped, and a tap room for me—a man who has a wife and children, and a wife who has a husband—
I'll be back in ten minutes," exclaimed
Rose, mounting Regina with wonderful economy, and flying away.Old Jacques was a small, thin habitant—was dressed at the mows, and ran off instantly to harness up his old mare and sled.Madame comes upon a pair of trousers on the sled, and she had to stop to help him."Who is that gentleman?" Rose asked carelessly, as they rode along.Old Jacques said nothing. He had stopped there last night, paid them, but hadn't told them his name or his business.A few minutes brought them to the scene of the tragedy. The stranger lifted off his cap, and his long, dark, powdered handsome, that had been so deeply companioned than ever."I am afraid you are nearly frozen to death," said the doctor, looking lightly to the ground. "Let us try to help you to the sled."Out beyond the gates, Rose's canter ended in a rapid gallop. She managed Spirits produced. Malt Liquors.

1876..... 3,111,200 4,614,381

1877..... 3,050,812 5,652,406

1878..... 3,530,053 5,387,604

1879..... 3,483,443 5,387,604

1881..... 3,638,605 5,387,604

Our consumption expresses the fact, however, that up to 1875 the wine gallon was in use, but since 1876 the Imperial gallon is the lawful measure, and as it is one-fifth larger than wine measure, the correct figures in comparison as to spirit we are as follows:

Gallons.

1876..... 3,733,345

1877..... 4,356,205

1878..... 4,356,205

1879..... 4,356,205

1880..... 4,356,205

1881..... 4,356,205

Of course the same rule applies to malt liquors. The duty on spirits increased by 10 cents in 1876, and again by 10 cents in 1879 by the present arrangement, and the distillers have a mutual agreement to carry as little stock as possible, which will account for the apparent decrease. If our temperance friends will take the trouble to look into the consumption of spirits for the years above named, they will find the Crook Act has not, no doubt, largely to the inefficiency of its administration—Inspectors being appointed because of their efficiency as political agents, not as administrators of the law—been successful in decreasing the amount of spirituous and malt liquors consumed.

Turning a Sharp Curve.

The Hamilton Times has turned quite as sharp a curve as it did on the tariff question in 1875, and with equal celerity. In its issue of the 23d, the day of the election in Manitoba, and when the defeat of the Government was certain, the Times said:

The election for the House of Assembly took place to-day. Whichever way they result the policy of disallowance of local railway charters will be the same. The Government is to blame for the Norquay Government, and Mr. Greenway, Opposing leader, have pledged themselves to at once re-establish the railway charters, and to keep on re-establishing them, until the competing lines of railways are built, and the country is supplied with the means of communication. Macdonald deserves to saddle on it for 20 years.

Why, then, if it made no difference which party won, did the Times join with its Grits in trying to sound down Mr. Norquay's Government, and in declaring that their defeat was essential to the maintenance of Provincial rights?

Editorial Briefs.

The result of the elections in Manitoba so completely falsified the Globe that it began its editorial reference to the subject with the following self-contradictory piece of drivel:—"At this writing the result of yesterday's contest in Manitoba is still somewhat uncertain, but there seems to be little doubt that the Norquay Government had been sustained by a fair majority."

The comments of the Grit press on the Manitoba elections for the New Year are reading just now. The Hamilton Times, like a second Toots, exclaims:—"It's of consequence, Norquay is opposed to disallowance." The Globe, however, in its caption to think clearly, says the verdict of Manitoba will, "rightly or wrongly, be interpreted to mean that the people of Manitoba approve of the Dominion Government's Pacific railway policy, including that of disallowing all railway charters not approved by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company."

Let us enlighten these wily representatives of Gritland, the blighting of whom hopes seem to have affected their reason, by quoting from the Brandon, Man., Sun, (anti-slavery) of the 18th inst., which says:

Should Mr. Woodsworth be elected for Brandon, and the other constituents of the province, represent a majority, to support the present local Government, and the new Grits, the charters will become the settled policy of the Douglass Government. His sense will tell him that. The Douglass Government, parties to this election; it is their policy that is to disallow all railway charters, and that the Manitoba Conservatives to come out squarely in favor of disallowance, we vote to sustain that policy in the course of events, for we are the parties concerned. Only the Douglass Government, and the Douglass party, will dislodge the Douglass Government. A majority for the Norquay Administration, and the Douglass party, in the present situation, it would be so accepted at Ottawa, and the situation would, therefore, remain unchanged."

The same paper contains several columns of editorials to the same effect, but the above is sufficient on the principle that "enough is enough as a feast."

The rate at which this public expenditure of this Province is increasing is simply alarming, and the prospect is that so long direct taxation will have to be resorted to. In fact, but for the large sale of timber lands, our present rulers would long ago have imposed taxes upon the people. The expenditure of 1881 was $2,585,063, and that of 1882 was $2,920,161, or $335,000 more. The estimate in 1883 was for $2,889,726, but the expenditure was thus $360,430—upwards of half a million in excess of the estimate. These facts make it appear to every one the necessity for the substitution of more economical rulers than those now in power.

BY THE OPPOSITION PRESS.

RETURNS FROM THE SOUTHWEST NOT YET RECEIVED.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 24.—Mr. Goulet, Opposing Conservative, has selected a five majority in La Verendrye. No return yet from Birtle Mountain, Turtle Mountain, North Dufferin, and Norfolk.

The Free Press (Grit) concedes nineteen Conservative votes to eleven Opposition, and admits that Winnipeg has given the Opposition a personal and not upon political grounds.

LATER.—Woodworth's majority over Sifton in Brandon is 125. Glass is defeated by 37 in Minnedosa. Crawford's majority in High Bluff is only two. Telegraphic communication in Southwestern Manitoba has been interrupted all day. A report is circulated that Greenway is elected in Mountain over Norquay, but nothing has been heard from there.

Newhall House Fire.

EVIDENCE AT THE INQUEST.

A Milwaukee despatch says: At the inquest in the Newhall House case, Antislavery testified that he believed that somebody who set fire, turned on the gas, and the explosion of the latter spread the fire with lightning rapidity. Antislavery testified there was no fuel in the room near the elevator. There was no grease at the bottom of the elevator, and there was not a particle of fire in the basement, except in the engine room. Most of the stores and offices on the ground floor and the hotel were heated by steam from the hotel boiler. Scheller had charge of the bar and billiard room. A person could from Michael street go straight to the bar room and billiard hall without passing through the lobby of the hotel. The fire escaped to the same as on the Flushing House which has been set fire upwards of thirty times since it has been there. Any part of the house that had charge of could not have produced such a fire.

The trial body will soon be convened for the trial of the Newhall House.

Mr. J. A. Clark, of the Milwaukee Journal, who is prosecuting for the Douglass Government, and Mr. Greenway, Premier, and Mr. Greenway, Opposing leader, have pledged themselves to at once re-establish the railway charters, and to keep on re-establishing them, until the competing lines of railways are built, and the country is supplied with the means of communication. Macdonald deserves to saddle on it for 20 years.

Then, if it made no difference which party won, did the Times join with its Grits in trying to sound down Mr. Norquay's Government, and in declaring that their defeat was essential to the maintenance of Provincial rights?

"The large Upper River steamer Aurora and Empress of India, are in Gaspé's dry dock undergoing extensive repairs and it is generally believed that they are intended to open the ball for the Royal Canadian Steamship Company. The contractors express ignorance of the intention of the owners of these vessels, which, although previously owned by different companies, are being rebuilt to one order. They are undoubtedly intended for some cutting out work as they are being almost entirely rebuilt for the purpose of increasing their speed. The Aurora's hull is being rebuilt to a racing model and her machinery is all being taken out. New hulls are being put in by George Bird & Co., and her engines are being replaced by those taken off the Emperor, one of the newest boats on the river, which served the purpose of cutting out the old time Sydney Land. The hull of the Emperor is being replaced by one of a more improved model and a strong set of new engines are being built for her by E. Gilbert & Sons."

A MODELS' travelling trunk has been invented by a genius. It is calculated to stand upon end, when the lid appears like a door swing to and fro with ease. The interior is constructed of many drawers, etc., and the top drawer, when pulled out forms a desk of the exact same height. By a slight twist of the wrist the desk is transformed into a toilet combination suitable for shaving, etc. The trunk will doubtless be fully appreciated by commercial travellers. The baggage smashers on the railroad have not had a test whack at it yet, but when they do the look like, bashing mug and mirror will probably be shattered, unless they are made of metal.

THE Attorney-General's bill respecting private asylums for the insane and infirm provides for the notification of the Inspector two weeks before the asylum is opened for reception of patients. The Inspector shall then inspect the asylum and make a final inspection, before handing the license to the Lieutenant Governor in Council. If no report is received, a license may be issued authorizing the proprietors to keep a private asylum. All such asylums shall be under the supervision of a Board of Visitors, composed of the County Judge, the Warden and the Clerk of the Peace for the County, and a local physician. A number of the provisions of the Act providing for the establishment of an hospital for habitual drunkards are made applicable to private asylums if the license so directs, and the provisions of the last mentioned Act respecting the voluntary admission of inmates are extended to any habitual consumer of stimulants or narcotics drugs to be admitted.

The Chairman was asked if he had the name of the person who had the charge of the asylum, and what conditions were attached to it, to the institution which had been assigned to him. He said that he had no such information, but in regard to the conditions of the license simply that the fees should be paid from point to point in Wilkinsville, that the board should state what was expected from Belleville, so that the Committee would have something definite to report upon to the City Council.

The Chairman said that the people of Amherstburg were not satisfied with the present route; that they wanted Belleville to provide all the approaches for the ferry, and that they distinctly wished it understood that they preferred the Bushy Island route.

The Chairman was asked, if he had the name of the person who had the charge of the asylum, and what conditions were attached to it, to the institution which had been assigned to him. He said that he had no such information, but in regard to the conditions of the license simply that the fees should be paid from point to point in Wilkinsville, that the board should state what was expected from Belleville, so that the Committee would have something definite to report upon to the City Council.

The Chairman said that the people of Amherstburg were not satisfied with the present route; that they wanted Belleville to provide all the approaches for the ferry, and that they distinctly wished it understood that they preferred the Bushy Island route.

One arrest was made last night.

The Mendine head goats over his "art treasures."

The County Council closed its session at noon to day.

The time-table now in use on the G. T. R. is the production of the weather.

It ought to be cheap next summer. The crop is immense, and the best quality.

LEVI TAYLOR, Belleville's own and only Foreigner, is confined to his home by illness.

LITTLE WALTER, Mr. James Maguire's horse, won the 2:40 race at Newcastle. Best time 2:49.

The repair to No. 1 steam fire engine has been completed. The engine is now better than ever before.

DRIFWOOD. Little risk to certain materials used in colouring washes. Let all concerned investigate for themselves.

Last night was decidedly the coldest of the season. Alderman Starling's thermometer marked 14 degrees below zero.

The Liberal-Conservative Association will meet at 2 p.m. to-morrow to arrange for the nomination of a candidate.

WILLIAM KERLER, of Trenton, entertained the curlers of that town last evening, at an oyster supper in the Union Hotel.

A GIRL, in the employ of Mrs. George Morden, while walking along Pineapple Street yesterday afternoon, fell and sprained the ankle of her mother.

The white moccasin has been abandoned for evening dress in Eastern cities, according to the Inter-Ocean, from necessity, in fact, as house servants are dressed so much like the guests as to cause embarrassment and confusion.

The latest wrinkle of fashionable architecture is a sitting room exclusively for the daughters of the family. It is thought to foster a love for domestic life, and furnishes a retreat where solitude can be found for study, music and painting.

The first two stinks of Bellville, as the Montreal Caledonians, on the model, were played in the city on the 25th. Mr. McLean's rank beat their opponents by one shot, and Mr. McLean's rank beat them by ten shots, leaving Bellville in a minority of nine in the first half of the match. Your druggist has it.

DO NOT Be Deceived. In these times of quack medical advertisements everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find a man who is really a doctor, and who really does as recommended. Electric Bitters will do as well as any medicine, and I can assure you that they are safe and good. Dr. Dye's Voltaic Bitters are the best and strongest tonics.

Our elixir and changeable climate, and our mode of life induce frequent colds, that often lead to severe Coughs, Bronchitis and other diseases of the Chest and Liver. Our friends the Kidneys and Urinary difficulties. We know whence we speak, and can readily say, give me a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle, by H. Templeton.

ANOTHER REMARK.—Over a thousand plots for five years have been laid in a week, and the crops are full of promise. When no one is held responsible for the enforcement of the laws on this subject the owners of dangerous buildings will not take their heads up over the matter.

SENIORUS for February celebrates St. Valentine's Day in capital style with an "A Queen Valentine," and has but to read it to see the appropriateness of the title. Anna North contributes "The Mission of Mabel's Valentine," and there is a funny little poem, "My Valentine," by J. M. Anderson. Buy it.

In the Police Court this morning Alfred Brickman, drunk, was dismissed. Sarah Maynes was found guilty of stealing some articles from a hotel, and was required to appear before Justice of the Peace, Bryan Fox, and Michael Galiver were charged with stealing a robe from Patrick Fitzpatrick. They were remanded until this afternoon.

This follows in the state of the thermometers during last night at different parts in this vicinity.—Warkworth, 26 below zero, this morning; Frankford, 29 below zero, this morning; Newmarket, 27 below zero, this morning; Concession, 15 below zero, this morning; Picton, 10 below zero, this morning; Marmora, 22 below zero, at 7 a.m.; Ottawa, 22 below zero, this morning; Peterboro, 21 below zero, this morning; Bobcaygeon, 14 below zero, this morning; Shantouf, 14 below zero, this morning.

"THE BULL BUSH" received the endorsement of a moderate sized audience in the hall last night. Heralded as the play and the person of the year, by the press notices, a finished performance was expected by those who attended the entertainment and in that they were not disappointed. Adorned as this production was with rich and brilliant dialogue, with well set scenery and neat situations, and presented by a company whom every shadow showed the education of the best school, it is not to be wondered at that its portrayal was thoroughly effective, and the commendation that it met with was indeed deserved.

A VERY GOOD THING to have in every home, by everybody, old and young, is the Armenian Alphabet. It is well worth the trouble of learning it, and it is a great aid to the study of Armenian. Those who have learned it will be granted a free admission to the school of the best school, it is not to be wondered at that its portrayal was thoroughly effective, and the commendation that it met with was indeed deserved.

The By-law to confirm a By-law of the Township of Dunegan and Ward was read a second time. It is provided that the Minister be granted a portion of a road allowance in lieu of taking him from his road for rail purposes.

The Committee res and reported. Adopted.

The Committee on Ways and Means res.

A number of accounts were ordered to be paid, and $200 was granted for a road in the 11th and 12th Concessions of Dunegan.

The Committee res and reported.

A return was presented showing that Mar, more & Lake, Trenton and Deseronto had paid their taxes.

The return was submitted by the Treasurer: the debtors were $165,000; due 2 Feb., $100,000; due 25 Feb., $100,000, of which $25,000 was spent on gravel roads during the past five years, $64,694.53; estimated amount of County, exclusive of Grand Junction stock, $100,668.85; cost of administration of Justice for the last five years, $30,305.33; amount paid to Bellville for the last five years for Administration of Justice, including Registry Office, $4,000.

A COMMITTEE OF THE COUNCIL OF LAMONT AND ST. JOHNS was read asking co-operation to petition the Legislature to permit of a lower grade of teachers to be appointed in our schools. The prayer of the petition was endorsed.

Mr. Wilmett asked that an effort be made to create an equitable qualification in June. It is proposed that the Minister be granted a portion of a road allowance in lieu of taking him from his road for rail purposes.

Mr. Miall said that he did not believe that the information desired could not be had from north of the Municipality.

Mr. Caskey was of opinion that no good would result from such as this as that suggested.

Mr. Hasley said the information desired could be given by each member.

The suggestion was acted on.

The several By-laws were read a third time, passed, and numbered.

The Council adjourned to the first Tuesday in June.

COUNTY COUNCIL.
FOURTH DAY.

The Council sat at nine o'clock and the minutes of yesterday's proceedings were approved. The Committee on Gravel Roads reported that the Superintendent of Gravel Roads had hauled gravel at several points and detailed the work performed by him as ordered at the last session.

A Committee consisting of the Wardens, Mr. Whalen, Ashby, Fisher, and Aylor were appointed to meet with a Committee of the City Council to confer on the subject of a prison labor.

Mr. Sheaves moved for a return showing the pecuniary status of the County.

The Committee on By-laws res.

The By-law to appoint Auditors and High School Trustees was read a second time.

The Wardens named J. O. Hoffman and the Clerk named A. F. Wood as County Auditors.

Thomas Eno, W. R. Ayerworth and James Chisholm were nominated as Auditors of Criminal Justice Accounts.

The first two named were chosen. Mr. J. O'Koun was selected as Trustee for the Thornton High School and Dr. Faulkner was chosen to represent the Stirling High School.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Demarest brought out Dr. Yunker and Mr. Gray as candidates. The former was elected.

The By-law to confirm a By-law of the Township of Dunegan and Ward was read a second time. It is provided that the Minister be granted a portion of a road allowance in lieu of taking him from his road for rail purposes.

The Committee res and reported.

The By-law to confirm a By-law of the Township of Warkworth was read a second time. It places Warkworth in the same situation as other northern Municipalities in regard to the holding of elections on the last Monday but one in December.

The By-law to confirm a By-law of the Township of Madoc was read a second time. It is provided that the Minister be granted a portion of a road allowance in lieu of taking him from his road for rail purposes.

BELLEVILLE, SATURDAY, JAN. 27.

The Boundary Award

Mr. Mowat has at last shown his true position with regard to the disputed territory. In a recent speech in the Legislature he said:

"He had already expressed his willingness to go to the Privy Council if this procedure was in the meantime put in motion of the territory."

The absurdity of Mr. Mowat's position is well seen. The legal boundary has been determined; the territory claimed does not belong to Ontario. So much is clear.

The mere setting up of a claim to it by Ontario does not establish her right to it.

The law does not allow a person who claims anything which is possessed by another to take possession of it unless and until all the rights of the possessor have finally determined.

The Dominion, however, is still in possession of the disputed territory, cannot be called upon to yield it until Ontario's rights have been established.

Therefore the Dominion is in the right and Mr. Mowat is in the wrong.

He knows this, and yet, although the Dominion has liberally offered joint control until the truly tribunals of justice can decide, he still persists in his claim to it.

It is to keep up agitation for his political benefit.

We leave it to the electors to say what ought to be done with so unfaithful and unprincipled a servant.

All the cries of "robbing Ontario," &c., are mere bombastic pretties of cold-blooded agitators.

There is a court to which such a case must eventually go, and there will, on the event of a decision, give a binding decision.

Neither the Dominion Parliament nor Manitoba, nor any other power on earth can rob Ontario of what is hers.

Mr. Mowat can only delay the settlement. He cannot prevent its being made, sooner or later. Meantime valuable time is being lost and bad feeling created, and for these things Mr. Mowat and his colleagues will have to answer.

The real majority of the Government on their railway policy is 10, as Mr. Conklin, of Winnipeg, supports them on that point. Thus the Government controls two-thirds of the House, despite the most frantic efforts of their opponents, who appeals to passion and prejudice have been most fittingly rebuked.

The reports as to temperature forwarded by telegraph from many points are beyond doubt totally unreliable, for the reason that many of the thermometers used are old, cheap affairs which mark from 10 to 14 degrees too low. In Belleville, for instance, on Thursday night the lowest temperature recorded by a thoroughly reliable instrument was 14 degrees below zero, while we were instruments in town which marked no less than 12 degrees lower. The spreading abroad of these the press of such incorrect reports has done much to alarm us, and it is to be hoped that the Telegraph Company will see to it that the reports furnished by its agents as to temperature are accurate.

When the Ontario Government want work done they don't advertise for tenders, but have private offers from their political friends, and no others. Such is the state of affairs revealed by their architect, Mr. Kivas Tully, in his examination before the Public Accounts Committee the other day.

Manitoba has repudiated most emphatically sectional critics. Next let Ontario speak to the same effect.

It cost $36 to whitewash the lock-up at Prince Arthur's Landing. Grit economy.

Says the Mail: "A plaster cast of Mr. Crooks for the museum of the Education Department cost the Province $25. Some years ago a bust of a Lieutenant-Governor cost $250. It will be seen that the price of busts vary. Lieutenant-Governor Macdonald's bust in the disputed territory cost the Province $5,500."

Correspondence.

WHAT IS GOING ON AROUND AND ABOUT US.
To the Editor of the Intelligencer,
Belleville, Saturday, Jan. 27.

Mr. Mowat has at last shown his true position with regard to the disputed territory. In a recent speech in the Legislature he said:

"He had already expressed his willingness to go to the Privy Council if this procedure was in the meantime put in motion of the territory."

The absurdity of Mr. Mowat's position is well seen. The legal boundary has been determined; the territory claimed does not belong to Ontario. So much is clear.

The mere setting up of a claim to it by Ontario does not establish her right to it.

The law does not allow a person who claims anything which is possessed by another to take possession of it unless and until all the rights of the possessor have finally determined.

The Dominion, however, is still in possession of the disputed territory, cannot be called upon to yield it until Ontario's rights have been established.

Therefore the Dominion is in the right and Mr. Mowat is in the wrong.

He knows this, and yet, although the Dominion has liberally offered joint control until the truly tribunals of justice can decide, he still persists in his claim to it.

It is to keep up agitation for his political benefit.

We leave it to the electors to say what ought to be done with so unfaithful and unprincipled a servant.

All the cries of "robbing Ontario," &c., are mere bombastic pretties of cold-blooded agitators.

There is a court to which such a case must eventually go, and there will, on the event of a decision, give a binding decision.

Neither the Dominion Parliament nor Manitoba, nor any other power on earth can rob Ontario of what is hers.

Mr. Mowat can only delay the settlement. He cannot prevent its being made, sooner or later. Meantime valuable time is being lost and bad feeling created, and for these things Mr. Mowat and his colleagues will have to answer.

HE AND SHE.

He sits in Honor's seat,
And she sits in the chair opposite,
She has no right to sit there,
But she wears the winsome smile.

The ladies are all true,
She had her face in hands first and then
Bent down to kiss him.

But dare not pray.

In church, in court and street
She stood without, beneath the wintry sky,
She shivered, but she was the most Bewitching girl in the land.

With bleeding eyes.

Upon his wedding day

She stood with burning eyes that fawned,

And heard the dancer's tread, the music's sweep,

Sound for sway.

THE BRIDE, as pure and true,

She took her hand, laughed merrily,

And still the world adored standing.

Though well it knew.

THE WIFE IN FROST AND SNOW,

Half-frozen, she stood beneath the frost,

She plighted her faith, for Love's supremest test,

In joy and woe.

BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, JAN. 29.
WEST Hastings

MR. ROSE RE-NOMINATED.

At a large, highly representative and enthusiastic meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association of West Hastings, held on Saturday afternoon, Mr. BAXTER ROSE, M.P., was re-nominated as the Legislator. Mr. Rose's merits are so well known that eulogy is unnecessary. He is certain to be elected, by the aid of his friends, and we are sure that all will be well given him. Let there be a thorough organization, and that at once.

* * * Buchupedia.

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidneys, Bladder and Uterine Disease. $1. Druggists. East Hastings.

The Liberal Conservatives of East Hastings will meet at Hasted's Hall, Roslin, on Tuesday, February 5th, at 2 p.m., for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Ontario Legislature. There ought to be no difficulty in carrying the riding in the Conservative interest, now that the voter list of the last election has been declared invalid and Ontario unreasonably entered the race, and many Conservatives entitled to vote, whose names were improperly kept off the list, have been awarded their rights by the Court. We trust to see a strong candidate nominated and an active canvass entered upon.

"Rough on Rate."

Cuts out rates, mines, reaches, files, axes, hammers, shovels, chipping tools, gophers, 15c. Druggists.

Grit "Economy" vs. Tory "Extravagance."

Because the Province of Quebec is less happily situated financially than the Province of Ontario, the Grit press in Ontario have many a time and oft urged that the financial condition of Quebec was due to the misrule and extravagance of the Conservatives, who have held the reins of power, with but a short interval, since Confederation. How false this assumption of the Ontario Grits is, will be gathered from the following comparison of the expenditure of the two Provinces, which is furnished by the Statistical Gazette:

"For purposes of comparison we take the years 1871 and 1881, the first year of a Conservative administration in Ontario, and the last for which the public accounts have been printed in this Province; and we take simply the leading items of expenditure on the part of consolidated fund, and which may therefore be considered as furnishing to some extent at least a test of the carefulness of the administration. The following is a comparison of these expenditures in Ontario:—

	1871.	1881.
Civil Government.	$14,614	$174,980
Legislation.	94,177	175,055
Colonial & Ecclesiastical.	55,469	97,289
Administration of Justice.	28,103	39,395
Lunatic and other Asylums.	140,713	393,792
Edificationary.	21,710	33,395
Agriculture and Manufactures.	74,925	106,036
Hospitals.	26,000	26,000
Literary and Scientific Inst.	1,350	4,685
Post Office.	301,368	502,524
Charitable Institutions.	119,009	192,033
Asylums.	172,193	264,005
Police, Law, & Expenses.	—	160,010
For Quebec, the following is the comparison for the two periods, of similar items of expenditure:—
1871.	1881.
Civil Government.	$128,922	$202,160
Legislation.	123,673	175,406
Colonial & Ecclesiastical.	55,469	97,289
Administration of Justice.	28,103	39,395
Lunatic and other Asylums.	140,713	393,792
Edificationary.	21,710	33,395
Agriculture and Manufactures.	74,925	106,036
Hospitals.	26,000	26,000
Literary and Scientific Inst.	1,350	4,685
Post Office.	301,368	502,524
Charitable Institutions.	119,009	192,033
Asylums.	172,193	264,005
Police, Law, & Expenses.	—	160,010

In the matter of public works and buildings, the item should probably be excluded, as it is a considerable portion of it, for purposes of comparison; the expenditure in 1871, for instance, being the sum of $81,087, on account of the construction of the experimental building at Quebec; but, looking at the leading items of these two tables, it will be found that Quebec suffers nothing by a comparison with Ontario. Take the relative percentage of increase on a few items, as follows:—

	Ontario.	Quebec.
Civil Government.	$14,614	$174,980
Legislation.	94,177	175,055
Colonial & Ecclesiastical.	55,469	97,289
Administration of Justice.	28,103	39,395
Lunatic and other Asylums.	140,713	393,792
Edificationary.	21,710	33,395
Agriculture and Manufactures.	74,925	106,036
Hospitals.	26,000	26,000
Literary and Scientific Inst.	1,350	4,685
Post Office.	301,368	502,524
Charitable Institutions.	119,009	192,033
Asylums.	172,193	264,005
Police, Law, & Expenses.	—	160,010

In the matter of public works and buildings, the item should probably be excluded, as it is a considerable portion of it, for purposes of comparison; the expenditure in 1871, for instance, being the sum of $81,087, on account of the construction of the experimental building at Quebec; but, looking at the leading items of these two tables, it will be found that Quebec suffers nothing by a comparison with Ontario. Take the relative percentage of increase on a few items, as follows:—

Editorial Previews.

The Toronto Tribune, a Grit paper, says:—

Even at the start when the Tilly tariff was forced on the state book; when Sir John Macdonald & Sir Charles Tupper and Sir Leonard Tilley joined forces to defeat it, the whole of Canada would be seriously endangered by the triumph of the Protectionists, the electors sustained the Macdonald government by a two-thirds vote.

The "franchise majority" referred to was 4,525 in a total of 207,313 votes cast, or less than one-fifth of the whole. Still, it sufficed to give the Grit party a majority of 28 votes in the legislature.

Latest returns show that Mr. Norquay's prediction as to the result of the elections was correct. Two counts now stand to Conservatives to 140 to the Liberal party, and 21 to the Liberal party on the general policy and 21 to 14 on the railway policy. This is good enough.

Trent Valley Canal.

RAPID PROGRESS WITH THE WORK—THE NEW WATERWAY SOON TO BE AN ACCOMPLISHED FACT.

FENWICK FALLS, Jan. 26.—Moore, Macdonald & Macdonald have made good progress with the rock excavation for the locks and canal here notwithstanding the severe winter weather. The contractor has agreed to extend the hard shell quota that the Government never intended building the canal. The contractors have opened a splendid quarry at Cobeywood, and have a large force also employed on the work. The contractor has agreed to pay a premium on the best quarry yet known in this district. Timber and supplies are being delivered on the line of the canal, and the contractors hope to complete the work before the end of January. Some of the parties engaged in the work have also commenced endings for the channel in Lakes Cameron and Sturgeon, with which these locks and the canal will connect. Surely the few unenterprised will now be convinced that our people Government have the interests of the country at heart.

Honest and Liberal.

While the Hopes are each bound in Hopkinton, the cost of the work is $12,25 per foot more than a barrel is sold for, besides the cost of early medicines, and the quality and quantity of the work done by the contractors, and liberal in the proportion, and no one should complain or buy use worthless, or cheap, basque imitation because the price is less.

The Murray Canal

At the meeting of the Council of the Province on the 20th.—Mr. John White, M.P. for East Hastings, went west to night. His visit to the city was in connection with certain alterations which he is anxious to make in the contract for the Murray Canal. He had an interview with the Minister of Public Works, and the latter informed him of the intention of the Prince Edward Railway Company's bridge to swing from an abutment in the middle of the Canal the bridge shall be constructed in two sections swinging from each shore. The bank of the canal is also to face with stone, commencing eight feet from the water, and extending eight feet above the surface. The contractor has agreed to do the work.

Mr. Parker explained that on Tuesday, when the agreement between the Government and the Opposition to the moving of amendments was carried by a vote of 40 to 22, he had intended to go into Committee on Supply. Mr. Meredith objected with trifling with the question. By a vote of 39 to 22, a motion was passed to tax income which would be an annual gratuity to the members of the opposition.

Mr. Parker said that he had been advised by Mr. White's suggestion, and had sent for Mr. Radford, Chief Engineer of the work, to explain the required changes in the specification. The removal of the abutment from the centre of the canal is to admit of timber boats from the upper lakes passing through the Murray Canal, and the bridge will be built in accordance with the plan of the Prince Edward Railway Company.

White states that reports of difficulties in the way of constructing the canal by the Fresquelle route are wholly unfounded. No rock or stones have been encountered, and the contractors are well satisfied with the character of the undraining. The lowest depth of water in the canal is 10 feet, and the estimated cost of the entire six miles of canal is $800,000. The canal will be free, there are no locks. A vote of $300,000 to continue the work will be asked for at the coming session.

The Australian Disaster.

MINERS CAUGHT IN A DRAFT—TWENTY TWO LIVES LOST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 26.—The Sydney (N.S.W.) Herald has the following details of the disaster at the Australian mine in December 12:—"The accident occurred at half past 5 o'clock a. m., in the drift from No. 2 shaft, which unexpectedly gave way, causing a violent draft. The water rushed in with great force, and in a few minutes the lower levels were flooded and the water had risen thirty feet in the shaft. The men employed at this point fell for their lives along the drift to the station, where they reached the cage and were hoisted to the surface. Twenty-seven men in another part of the new workings were unable to reach the shaft, and their only hope was that they might be able to reach and ascend distant stairs leading to the upper level. The scene at the top of the shaft was pitiful, mothers, wives, children and friends being gathered there, waiting almost without hope for news of their loved ones.

BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, JAN. 29

City and Vicinity.

TO-MORROW is Shrove Tuesday.
No arrests are reported since Saturday.

One team had full possession of the call last night.

THERE was no business before the Police Court to-day.

WALTER FANNING shipped a car load of horses to S. Vogel, at Ronout, N. Y., to-day.

A TEAM of horses ran away on the market this morning and created considerable temporary excitement.

MR. HENRY COBBY returned home yesterday, after having made a very successful business trip in the east.

A VERY LARGE QUANTITY OF VERY GOOD WOOD was brought into the city to-day and disposed of at satisfactory rates.

YESTERDAY was one of the pleasantest of the season for driving, and everyone who owned, or could procure, a rig was out.

FOR some reason, gas was not available in Christ Church last night, but lamps were procured and the services went on as usual.

COL. JONES's chink withdraw from the second draw in the single sink curling competition at Montreal, owing to lack of time to finish the games.

THESE are 40 engines now quartered at this station, of which 20 are morgue. Those running east in many cases have to run to Montreal—this is the regular traffic.

SUCH DELICATE HIBERNIAN NAMES as Muldoon, Mulcahy, and Paudheen, now adorn the bill boards of the city. The persons presuming to own them will figure in a pic-nic here at a future date.

The following are the names of the Curious who were to meet to-day: James Gordon, Dr. Lester, Wm. Webster, D. M. Waters, Frank Dolan (Geo. H. Pope), G. L. MacClelland, J. W. Johnson.

MR. GEORGE BARNES, one of the most able and popular commercial men who visit this city, journeyed eastward to-day. He will return on Thursday. He has the reputation of selling more goods than any man who visits Belleville.

A DESPATCH from the 27th states that a man named Beancott, working on the Quebec & Ontario Railway, accidentally shot in the side by his chum while fooling with a revolver. The doctor probed for the ball, but there is not much hope of his recovery.

BRADLEY & SONS purchased the steamer Pearl, but chartered the Hastings for the Detroit and Ogdensburg route. The Armenia goes to the Georgian Bay, and it is stated that the steamers Pearl and Magnet will run on the upper lakes in connection with the Toronto, Grey, and Bruce Railway.

Mr. R. D. Bowes of Amherstburg, drove to town this morning and took his boat away in the vicinity of McHugh's blacksmith shop. The animal, which was lame, became frightened from some cause, broke its fastenings and ran on the ice and struck right front log. Dr. Foster is standing by.

The following officers of Stirling Lodge No. 230, I. O. O. F., were on Wednesday evening last installed by Bro. A. L. Green, D. D. G. M., assisted by Bro. A. McFee, Dr. Gilbert and J. Bartley, of Belleville Lodge No. 81:

Bro. R. D. Parker, N. G.
Bro. J. C. McHugh, V. G.
O. Hawat, P. S.
H. M. Meiklejohn, P. S.
N. H. Calder, Treasurer.

A MAN named Wright, procured a rig on Saturday morning from L. O'Brien, for the alleged purpose of going to Murray to bring his family to town, having rented a house here. However, he proved himself dead wrong, for instead of returning on Saturday night as he promised, he has not yet presented himself. Mr. O'Brien went to Frankfort yesterday, but could find no trace of the missing animal.

GOVERNMENT'S TRIAL.—Mr. Cole and Mr. Mulford's Picnic Combination will appear in the Metropolitan Hall on Monday, Feb. 5th. An exchange says of them:

"They had an immense house here last night and there was standing room only at 8 o'clock. There were some of the finest things, both musical and eccentric, rendered in the old way witnessed here before, with marked appreciation and some of the most inspiring scenes which are seen given and call forth continuous laughter from the delighted audience from the rise of the curtain until the fall."

ONE side of a story is good until the other side is told, is a saying which holds good in the account of a fight in Madoc furnished our local reporter by Mr. Wesley Robertson. According to another account furnished us, it appears that Lenard Robertson went to the village of Madoc on the 20th, when young Wellington followed him through the village, daring him to fight. Robertson said he did not want to fight, but if nothing else would satisfy him, he would do it. Mr. Wesley Robertson said he was injured.

Mr. Cole and Mr. Mulford's Picnic Combination will appear in the Metropolitan Hall on Monday, Feb. 5th. An exchange says of them:

"They had an immense house here last night and there was standing room only at 8 o'clock. There were some of the finest things, both musical and eccentric, rendered in the old way witnessed here before, with marked appreciation and some of the most inspiring scenes which are seen given and call forth continuous laughter from the delighted audience from the rise of the curtain until the fall."

THE ALLEGED ARSON CASE.

TRIAL OF FRANCIS LOCKERTY.
Have the Judges Jurisdiction, and if they have, will they try it?

DECISION RESERVED UNTIL SATURDAY.

MONDAY, JAN. 29.—Judges Lazier and Frazer occupied the bench at Interim Sessions this morning, to try the charge of arson preferred against Francis Lockerty.

Mr. S. B. Burdett, appeared for the Crown, and Mr. G. D. G. Dickson, Q. C., and Mr. W. N. Weston, for the defense.

The prisoner was not present.

The County Court, Mr. Coleman said, was not one of Oyer and Terminer and general goal delivery. It was for the trying of a person charged with a crime against whom there was no trial by jury.

Mr. Coleman said that the charge of arson was not tried at the General Sessions because it was not a serious offense.

The police slate last night was a blank. The steamship Caspian arrived at Hallfax at 10 a.m.

SECURE YOUR SEATS FOR "Muldowen's Picnic" at Reynolds'.

It is scarcely probable that there will be any carling until Saturday.

Any carling far! Not far; only to Muldown's.

This is what is being harvested is about sixteen inches thick and very clear.

Several panes of glass in the City Hall were broken by the gale this morning.

INVITATIONS have been issued for a party to-morrow evening. It will be a prominent social event.

A very large congregation assembled last evening at the union services in the City Mission building.

It is said that after the first of February, the mail to and from Madoe, and this city, will be carried by rail.

Mr. HUGH C. THOMPSON, of this city, has been appointed Tax Inspector on the Central Ontario Railway.

The schoolboy John Wesley has changed hands, our widow, Michael Mullins, having sold him to a resident of Fonthill's Bay.

"Tis fair that I love," is coming this way. This doesn't refer to any girl in Trenton or this city, honor bright. It's the name of a play.

We learn from Mr. Harris, in whose care the wounded man Bezzina was taken, the Kingston Hospital, that Dr. Sullivan's opinion is that Bezzina will recover.

A CONSIDERABLE number of local sportsmen will go to Campbellford on Friday to witness the pigeon shooting match between Cockburn, of that place, and Stroud, of Hamilton.

A TROTTON ice-boat that came here on Saturday last and Sunday is quartered near the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb. The vagaries of the weather prevented its going further.

Two rinks of local curlers were to have gone to Campbellford this morning to practice with the club recently formed in that village; but the unfavorable weather stopped the intended excursion.

The Mail says:—"Mr. Mowat's Bellville station is the oldest in Ontario. Mr. Girouard, M. P., was paid to promote the passage of the Deceased wife's Sister Bill through Parliament. The jury will be through with her award substantial damages."

The regular boxing meeting in connection with the Merchantville Home, will be held, for the remainder of the season, every alternate Thursday. A meeting will (D. V. be held to morrow (Thursday) afternoon at the residence of John Haines, East Bible reading at 8 o'clock.

JOHN GREEN, the Indian who stole a fine team of horses from Mr. R. Gilbert at Odessa recently, and was figured as a horse thief in this country, has been captured at Thorold, near Toronto. He had been lodged in gaol pending the action of the authorities. The horses have been recovered. Green will probably make another visit to the Prairies.

JOHN GREEN, who is a principal party to the Boston Kidney, stated in his evidence in the Police Court at Bedford on the 30th, when her charge against Ray, R. F. Beattie was heard, that she had formerly been employed in Belleville, amongst other places. She is described as "probably 21 years of age, and is very pale in appearance and possessed of piercing grey eyes, which she narrowly criticised the court for her defense and reported. She has an indomitable will, and was sharp and quick often in parrying the questions of the cross-examiner.

WALTER PROUDHART, —Toronto, Jan. 31.—Lakes strong winds and gales from the south west and north west, cloudy to fair, decidedly colder weather, with local flurries of snow.

HIS FIRST APPEARANCE.—We are pleased to learn that, in addition to the many other attractive features of the Social Evening in the Lecture Room of Bridge Street Church on Thursday evening, Mr. A. Wensley will make his first public appearance since his return to the city, and will take a prominent part in the programme. His many friends will no doubt be present to hear him. A very attractive art gallery will be open during the evening, and refreshments will be served at intervals.

The best place in the city to find odds and ends of tweeds, mantles, cloths, etc., is at Hawkes'. After an extensive sale of winter trade, he has an extra amount of odds and ends of Tweeds, Mantle Cloths, Dress Goods, Printed Flannels, Cottons, Linens, Trimmings, etc., which he will sell very cheap in order to clear out there. There is a bargain in every piece.

A Portable Electric Lighter.

Scientific American, New York, Dec. 16.

A Portable Electric Lighter for $5.00 can be had by sending to the portable Electric Light Co., 29 Water Street, Boston. It is an economical and safe apparatus for lighting for home and business purposes.

The Boundary Question.

Mr. Clark thus puts the boundary question in a nut shell:

Mr. John Macdonald (1872)—Refer the matter to the Privy Council and let us have a judicial and legal settlement.

Mr. Mackenzie (1874)—We are going to refer it to arbitration.

Mr. Blake (1875)—But the award of the arbitrator will only be suggestive.

Mr. Mills—Yes; and if we appeal from the arbitration and get a legal decision, it will be found that Ontario is entitled to compensation in consequence of the formation of Manitoba with her limits.

Mr. Mowat (1878)—We now have the award, and it only gives one-thirteth of the territory we claim.

Sir John Macdonald (1872)—The arbitration is not satisfactory; let us have a legal decision.

Mr. Mackenzie (1874)—We are going to refer it to arbitration.

Mr. Blake (1875)—But the award of the arbitrator will only be suggestive.

Mr. Mills—Yes; and if we appeal from the arbitration and get a legal decision, it will be found that Ontario is entitled to compensation in consequence of the formation of Manitoba with her limits.

Mr. Mowat (1878)—We now have the award, and it only gives one-thirteth of the territory we claim.

Sir John Macdonald (1872)—The arbitration is not satisfactory; let us have a legal decision.

Mr. Mackenzie (1874)—We are going to refer it to arbitration, and that I decided, with my "usual caution," not to ratify the award if not satisfactory, I intend to stick to it.

Mr. Mowat—Certainly. The award is not satisfactory; it does not give us the territory we claim, but let us stick to it.

Mr. Mills—Hear, hear. As I am in 1875, if we appeal from the award, we will be compensated for loss of territory, but never mind that, let us stick to it.

Mr. Laufer, of Quebec—If Ontario appeals to the Privy Council she will secure more territory than the award gives, let us compel her to stick to the award.

My DEAR LAUDERDALE: I think I promised, when I left Windsor, to write to tell you what I got on in this horrid Arctic region. It is now nearly two months since I left Windsor, and my health is not good (I laugh—I have discovered that I have a conscience) gives me many twinges when I am alone, and I am not able to sleep at night. I am full of my subject, so here goes.

In the first place, Miss Danton is well, and as much of an angel as ever. In the second place, Danton Hall is delightful, and holds many a happy hour for me, and I have had with jealousy. The keenest north wind that has ever blown since I came to Canada has been吹了。 It is a fine fellow, too, and looks like a lion in the Roman tranch. There was a small boy named David, and his name was David. Many Anthony—David what love did those to one and all.

"Kate refused him a year ago, in England, because he was not good enough for her, of course; and yet here he is. It is the old story of the strength of the male, and the weakness of the female, and I am very sorry for it.

"He is a good young man, though. He has eight thousand dollars, and the Keiths are great people in Scotland, I hear. Didn't I always try to get you to like him? You were right, though."

"Sir Roland! Go to Montreal." "I am coming back to you." "I know it. I am afraid it is very likely. If it were to murder Mr. Stanford he would come to me."

"It is a little ridiculous, then." "Just little. There is the Captain calling you, Go."

"They went over. Captain Danion whirled round and came to a halt at eight o'clock. "Here, Frank," he said: "I'm getting tired of this. Take my skates, and let us see who are capable of an ice."

Doctor Frank put on the skates, and struck off.

"I am a fool, table," the Doctor said, removing his invisible cigar; "lovely women, brave men, and bright, and good-looking Englishmen stay well, but I am not. Shakes beyond my strength sometimes. I don't pretend to understand her, and—well, I am in Geth—. I stand it in her, as well as in myself."

"I am afraid it is very likely. If it were to murder Mr. Stanford he would come to me."

"They went over. Captain Danion whirled round and came to a halt at eight o'clock. "Here, Frank," he said: "I'm getting tired of this. Take my skates, and let us see who are capable of an ice."

Doctor Frank put on the skates, and struck off.

"I am a fool, table," the Doctor said, removing his invisible cigar; "lovely women, brave men, and bright, and good-looking Englishmen stay well, but I am not. Shakes beyond my strength sometimes. I don't pretend to understand her, and—well, I am in Geth—. I stand it in her, as well as in myself."

"I am afraid it is very likely. If it were to murder Mr. Stanford he would come to me."

"It is a little ridiculous, then."

"Just little. There is the Captain calling you, Go."
